It is hard to imagine a world without Shakespeare. Since their composition four hundred years ago, Shakespeare’s plays and poems have traveled the globe, inviting those who see and read his works to make them their own.

Readers of the New Folger Editions are part of this ongoing process of “taking up Shakespeare,” finding our own thoughts and feelings in language that strikes us as old or unusual and, for that very reason, new. We still struggle to keep up with a writer who could think a mile a minute, whose words paint pictures that shift like clouds. These expertly edited texts are presented to the public as a resource for study, artistic adaptation, and enjoyment. By making the classic texts of the New Folger Editions available in electronic form as Folger Digital Texts, we place a trusted resource in the hands of anyone who wants them.

The New Folger Editions of Shakespeare’s plays, which are the basis for the texts realized here in digital form, are special because of their origin. The Folger Shakespeare Library in Washington, DC, is the single greatest documentary source of Shakespeare’s works. An unparalleled collection of early modern books, manuscripts, and artwork connected to Shakespeare, the Folger’s holdings have been consulted extensively in the preparation of these texts. The Editions also reflect the expertise gained through the regular performance of Shakespeare’s works in the Folger’s Elizabethan Theater.

I want to express my deep thanks to editors Barbara Mowat and Paul Werstine for creating these indispensable editions of Shakespeare’s works, which incorporate the best of textual scholarship with a richness of commentary that is both inspired and engaging. Readers who want to know more about Shakespeare and his plays can follow the paths these distinguished scholars have tread by visiting the Folger either in-person or online, where a range of physical and digital resources exists to supplement the material in these texts. I commend to you these words, and hope that they inspire.

Michael Witmore
Director, Folger Shakespeare Library
Until now, with the release of the Folger Digital Texts, readers in search of a free online text of Shakespeare’s plays had to be content primarily with using the Moby™ Text, which reproduces a late-nineteenth century version of the plays. What is the difference? Many ordinary readers assume that there is a single text for the plays: what Shakespeare wrote. But Shakespeare’s plays were not published the way modern novels or plays are published today: as a single, authoritative text. In some cases, the plays have come down to us in multiple published versions, represented by various Quartos (Qq) and by the great collection put together by his colleagues in 1623, called the First Folio (F). There are, for example, three very different versions of Hamlet, two of King Lear, Henry V, Romeo and Juliet, and others. Editors choose which version to use as their base text, and then amend that text with words, lines or speech prefixes from the other versions that, in their judgment, make for a better or more accurate text.

Other editorial decisions involve choices about whether an unfamiliar word could be understood in light of other writings of the period or whether it should be changed; decisions about words that made it into Shakespeare’s text by accident through four hundred years of printings and misprinting; and even decisions based on cultural preference and taste. When the Moby™ Text was created, for example, it was deemed “improper” and “indecent” for Miranda to chastise Caliban for having attempted to rape her. (See The Tempest, 1.2: “Abhorred slave,/Which any print of goodness wilt not take,/Being capable of all ill! I pitied thee…”). All Shakespeare editors at the time took the speech away from her and gave it to her father, Prospero.

The editors of the Moby™ Shakespeare produced their text long before scholars fully understood the proper grounds on which to make the thousands of decisions that Shakespeare editors face. The Folger Library Shakespeare Editions, on which the Folger Digital Texts depend, make this editorial process as nearly transparent as is possible, in contrast to older texts, like the Moby™, which hide editorial interventions. The reader of the Folger Shakespeare knows where the text has been altered because editorial interventions are signaled by square brackets (for example, from Othello: “[If she in chains of magic were not bound,"), half-square brackets (for example, from Henry V: “With [blood] and sword and fire to win your right,”), or angle brackets (for example, from Hamlet: “O farewell, honest ⟨soldier⟩ Who hath relieved/you?”). At any point in the text, you can hover your cursor over a bracket for more information.

Because the Folger Digital Texts are edited in accord with twenty-first century knowledge about Shakespeare’s texts, the Folger here provides them to readers, scholars, teachers, actors, directors, and students, free of charge, confident of their quality as texts of the plays and pleased to be able to make this contribution to the study and enjoyment of Shakespeare.
Human nature and the law often collide in Measure for Measure. As the play begins, the Duke of Vienna announces he is going away and puts his deputy Angelo in charge of the state. Angelo immediately enforces a law prohibiting sex outside of marriage, sentencing Claudio to death for sleeping with Juliet, Claudio’s now-pregnant fiancée.

Claudio’s sister Isabella, a novice nun, appeals to Angelo to save her brother. But the supposedly pure Angelo demands that Isabella sleep with him to save Claudio. To Claudio’s dismay, Isabella refuses.

The duke, who has remained in Vienna disguised as a friar, suggests that Angelo’s jilted fiancée, Mariana, could take Isabella’s place. Although the trick succeeds, Angelo orders Claudio beheaded anyway. The duke saves Claudio, but he tells Isabella that Claudio is dead.

The duke, resuming his identity, sentences Angelo to wed Mariana and then be put to death. But Mariana and Isabella plead for Angelo’s life. Revealing that Claudio is alive, the duke pardons Angelo and proposes to Isabella.

Lords, Officers, Citizens, Servants, and Attendants
Scene 1

Enter Duke, Escalus, Lords, and Attendants.

DUKE  Escalus.

ESCALUS  My lord.

DUKE  Of government the properties to unfold
       Would seem in me t’ affect speech and discourse,
       Since I am put to know that your own science
       Exceeds, in that, the lists of all advice
       My strength can give you. Then no more remains
       But that, to your sufficiency, as your worth is able,
       And let them work. The nature of our people,
       Our city’s institutions, and the terms
       For common justice, you’re as pregnant in
       As art and practice hath enriched any
       That we remember. There is our commission,

       "He hands Escalus a paper."

       From which we would not have you warp.—Call hither,

       I say, bid come before us Angelo.

       "An Attendant exits."

What figure of us think you he will bear?

For you must know, we have with special soul
Elected him our absence to supply,
Lent him our terror, dressed him with our love,
And given his deputation all the organs
Of our own power. What think you of it?

ESCALUS
If any in Vienna be of worth
To undergo such ample grace and honor,
It is Lord Angelo.

Enter Angelo.

DUKE Look where he comes.

ANGELO Always obedient to your Grace’s will,
I come to know your pleasure.

DUKE Angelo,
There is a kind of character in thy life
That to th’ observer doth thy history
Fully unfold. Thyself and thy belongings
Are not thine own so proper as to waste
Thyself upon thy virtues, they on thee.
Heaven doth with us as we with torches do,
Not light them for themselves; for if our virtues
Did not go forth of us, ’twere all alike
As if we had them not. Spirits are not finely touched
But to fine issues, nor nature never lends
The smallest scruple of her excellence
But, like a thrifty goddess, she determines Herself the glory of a creditor,
Both thanks and use. But I do bend my speech
To one that can my part in him advertise.
Hold, therefore, Angelo.

In our remove be thou at full ourself.

Mortality and mercy in Vienna
Live in thy tongue and heart. Old Escalus,
Though first in question, is thy secondary.
Take thy commission.

ANGELO Now, good my lord,
Let there be some more test made of my mettle
Before so noble and so great a figure
Be stamped upon it.

DUKE No more evasion.

We have with a leavened and preparèd choice
Proceeded to you. Therefore, take your honors.

Our haste from hence is of so quick condition
That it prefers itself and leaves unquestioned

Matters of needful value. We shall write to you,

As time and our concernings shall importune,

How it goes with us, and do look to know

What doth befall you here. So fare you well.

To th’ hopeful execution do I leave you
Of your commissions.

ANGELO Yet give leave, my lord,

That we may bring you something on the way.

DUKE My haste may not admit it.

Nor need you, on mine honor, have to do

With any scruple. Your scope is as mine own,

So to enforce or qualify the laws

As to your soul seems good. Give me your hand.

I’l privily away. I love the people,

But do not like to stage me to their eyes.

Though it do well, I do not relish well

Their loud applause and aves vehement,

Nor do I think the man of safe discretion

That does affect it. Once more, fare you well.

ANGELO

The heavens give safety to your purposes.

ESCALUS

Lead forth and bring you back in happiness.

DUKE I thank you. Fare you well.

ESCALUS, [to Angelo]

I shall desire you, sir, to give me leave

To have free speech with you; and it concerns me

To look into the bottom of my place.

He exits.
A power I have, but of what strength and nature
I am not yet instructed.

ANGELO
'Tis so with me. Let us withdraw together,
And we may soon our satisfaction have Touching that point.

ESCALUS I’ll wait upon your Honor.

They exit.

Scene 2
Enter Lucio and two other Gentlemen.

LUCIO If the Duke, with the other dukes, come not to composition with the King of Hungary, why then all the dukes fall upon the King.

FIRST GENTLEMAN Heaven grant us its peace, but not the King of Hungary’s!

SECOND GENTLEMAN Amen.

LUCIO Thou conclud’st like the sanctimonious pirate that went to sea with the ten commandments but scrapped one out of the table.

SECOND GENTLEMAN “Thou shalt not steal”? 10

LUCIO Ay, that he razed.

FIRST GENTLEMAN Why, ’twas a commandment to command the Captain and all the rest from their functions!

They put forth to steal. There’s not a soldier of us all that in the thanksgiving before meat do relish the petition well that prays for peace.

SECOND GENTLEMAN I never heard any soldier dislike it.

LUCIO I believe thee, for I think thou never wast where grace was said.

SECOND GENTLEMAN No? A dozen times at least. 20

FIRST GENTLEMAN What? In meter?

LUCIO In any proportion or in any language.

FIRST GENTLEMAN I think, or in any religion.
LUCIO  Ay, why not? Grace is grace, despite of all controversy; as, for example, thou thyself art a wicked villain, despite of all grace.

FIRST GENTLEMAN  Well, there went but a pair of shears between us.

LUCIO  I grant, as there may between the lists and the velvet. Thou art the list.

FIRST GENTLEMAN  And thou the velvet. Thou art good velvet; thou ’rt a three-piled piece, I warrant thee. I had as lief be a list of an English kersey as be piled, as thou art piled, for a French velvet. Do I speak feelingly now?

LUCIO  I think thou dost, and indeed with most painful feeling of thy speech. I will, out of thine own confession, learn to begin thy health, but, whilst I live, forget to drink after thee.

LUCIO  I think I have done myself wrong, have I not?

FIRST GENTLEMAN  Yes, that thou hast, whether thou art tainted or free.

Enter Mistress Overdone, a Bawd.

LUCIO  Behold, behold, where Madam Mitigation comes! I have purchased as many diseases under her roof as come to—

SECOND GENTLEMAN  To what, I pray?

LUCIO  Judge.

SECOND GENTLEMAN  To three thousand dolors a year.

FIRST GENTLEMAN  Ay, and more.

LUCIO  A French crown more.

FIRST GENTLEMAN  Thou art always figuring diseases in me, but thou art full of error. I am sound.

LUCIO  Nay, not, as one would say, healthy, but so sound as things that are hollow. Thy bones are hollow.
FIRST GENTLEMAN, \textit{to Bawd} How now, which of your hips has the most profound sciatica?

BAWD Well, well. There’s one yonder arrested and carried to prison was worth five thousand of you all. 60

SECOND GENTLEMAN Who’s that, I pray thee?
BAWD Marry, sir, that’s Claudio, Signior Claudio.

FIRST GENTLEMAN Claudio to prison? ’Tis not so.
BAWD Nay, but I know ’tis so. I saw him arrested, saw him carried away; and, which is more, within these three days his head to be chopped off. 65

LUCIO But, after all this fooling, I would not have it so!
Art thou sure of this?

BAWD I am too sure of it. And it is for getting Madam
Julietta with child. 70

LUCIO Believe me, this may be. He promised to meet me two hours since, and he was ever precise in promise-keeping.

SECOND GENTLEMAN Besides, you know, it draws something near to the speech we had to such a purpose. 75

FIRST GENTLEMAN But most of all agreeing with the proclamation.

LUCIO Away. Let’s go learn the truth of it.

\textit{Lucio and Gentlemen} exit.

BAWD Thus, what with the war, what with the sweat, what with the gallows, and what with poverty, I am custom-shrunk. 80

Enter \textit{Pompey.}

How now? What’s the news with you?

POMPEY Yonder man is carried to prison.

BAWD Well, what has he done?

POMPEY A woman. 85

BAWD But what’s his offense?

POMPEY Groping for trouts in a peculiar river.

BAWD What? Is there a maid with child by him?
POMPEY  No, but there’s a woman with maid by him.
        You have not heard of the proclamation, have you?
        BAWD  What proclamation, man?
        POMPEY  All houses in the suburbs of Vienna must be plucked down.
        BAWD  And what shall become of those in the city?
        POMPEY  They shall stand for seed. They had gone down too, but that a wise burgher put in for them.
        BAWD  But shall all our houses of resort in the suburbs be pulled down?
        POMPEY  To the ground, mistress.
        BAWD  Why, here’s a change indeed in the commonwealth!
        What shall become of me?
        POMPEY  Come, fear not you. Good counselors lack no clients. Though you change your place, you need not change your trade. I’ll be your tapster still.
        Courage. There will be pity taken on you. You that have worn your eyes almost out in the service, you will be considered.

        Enter Provost, Claudio, Juliet, and Officers.

        BAWD  What’s to do here, Thomas Tapster? Let’s withdraw.
        POMPEY  Here comes Signior Claudio, led by the Provost to prison. And there’s Madam Juliet.

        [Bawd and Pompey exit.]

        CLAUDIO, to Provost
        Fellow, why dost thou show me thus to th’ world?
        Bear me to prison, where I am committed.

        PROVOST
        I do it not in evil disposition,
        But from Lord Angelo by special charge.

        CLAUDIO
        Thus can the demigod Authority
        Make us pay down for our offense, by weight,
The words of heaven: on whom it will, it will;
On whom it will not, so; yet still ’tis just.

Enter Lucio and Second Gentleman.

LUCIO

Why, how now, Claudio? Whence comes this restraint?

CLAUDIO

From too much liberty, my Lucio, liberty.
As surfeit is the father of much fast,
So every scope by the immoderate use Turns to restraint. Our natures do pursue,
Like rats that raven down their proper bane,
A thirsty evil, and when we drink, we die.

LUCIO

If I could speak so wisely under an arrest, I would send for certain of my creditors. And yet, to say the truth, I had as lief have the foppery of freedom as the mortality of imprisonment. What’s thy offense, Claudio?

CLAUDIO

What but to speak of would offend again.

LUCIO

What, is ’t murder?

CLAUDIO

No.

LUCIO

Lechery?

CLAUDIO

Call it so.

PROVOST

Away, sir. You must go.

LUCIO

One word, good friend.—Lucio, a word with you.

CLAUDIO

A hundred, if they’ll do you any good. Is lechery so looked after?

Thus stands it with me: upon a true contract
I got possession of Julietta’s bed.
You know the lady. She is fast my wife,
Save that we do the denunciation lack
Of outward order. This we came not to
Only for propagation of a dower
Remaining in the coffer of her friends,
From whom we thought it meet to hide our love
Till time had made them for us. But it chances
The stealth of our most mutual entertainment
With character too gross is writ on Juliet.

LUCIO

With child, perhaps?

CLAUDIO

Unhappily, even so.

And the new deputy now for the Duke—
Whether it be the fault and glimpse of newness,
Or whether that the body public be
A horse whereon the governor doth ride,
Who, newly in the seat, that it may know
He can command, lets it straight feel the spur;
Whether the tyranny be in his place
Or in his eminence that fills it up,
I stagger in—but this new governor
Awakes me all the enrollèd penalties
Which have, like unscoured armor, hung by th’ wall
So long that nineteen zodiacs have gone round,
And none of them been worn; and for a name
Now puts the drowsy and neglected act
Freshly on me. ’Tis surely for a name.

LUCIO

I warrant it is. And thy head stands so tickle on thy shoulders that a milkmaid, if she be in love, may sigh it off. Send after the Duke and appeal to him.

CLAUDIO

I have done so, but he’s not to be found.
I prithee, Lucio, do me this kind service:
This day my sister should the cloister enter
And there receive her approbation.
Acquaint her with the danger of my state;
Implore her, in my voice, that she make friends
To the strict deputy; bid herself assay him.
I have great hope in that, for in her youth
There is a prone and speechless dialect
Such as move men. Besides, she hath prosperous art
When she will play with reason and discourse,
And well she can persuade.

LUCIO  I pray she may, as well for the encouragement of the like, which else would stand under grievous imposition, as for the enjoying of thy life, who I would be sorry should be thus foolishly lost at a game of tick-tack. I’ll to her.

CLAUDIO  I thank you, good friend Lucio.

LUCIO  Within two hours.

CLAUDIO  Come, officer, away.

_They exit._

«Scene 3»

_Enter Duke and Friar Thomas._

DUKE

No, holy father, throw away that thought.
Believe not that the dribbling dart of love
Can pierce a complete bosom. Why I desire thee
To give me secret harbor hath a purpose
More grave and wrinkled than the aims and ends
Of burning youth.

FRIAR THOMAS  May your Grace speak of it?

DUKE

My holy sir, none better knows than you
How I have ever loved the life removed,
And held in idle price to haunt assemblies
Where youth and cost witless bravery keeps.
I have delivered to Lord Angelo,
A man of stricture and firm abstinence,
My absolute power and place here in Vienna,
And he supposes me traveled to Poland,
For so I have strewed it in the common ear,
And so it is received. Now, pious sir,
You will demand of me why I do this.

FRIAR THOMAS  Gladly, my lord.

DUKE

We have strict statutes and most biting laws,
The needful bits and curbs to headstrong weeds,
Which for this fourteen years we have let slip,
Even like an o’ergrown lion in a cave
That goes not out to prey. Now, as fond fathers,
Having bound up the threat’ning twigs of birch
Only to stick it in their children’s sight
For terror, not to use—in time the rod
More mocked than feared—so our decrees,
Dead to infliction, to themselves are dead,
And liberty plucks justice by the nose,
The baby beats the nurse, and quite athwart
Goes all decorum.

FRIAR THOMAS  It rested in your Grace
To unloose this tied-up justice when you pleased,
And it in you more dreadful would have seemed
Than in Lord Angelo.

DUKE  I do fear, too dreadful.

Sith ’twas my fault to give the people scope,
’Twould be my tyranny to strike and gall them
For what I bid them do; for we bid this be done
When evil deeds have their permissive pass
And not the punishment. Therefore, indeed, my father,
I have on Angelo imposed the office,
Who may in th’ ambush of my name strike home,
And yet my nature never in the fight
To do in slander. And to behold his sway
I will, as ’twere a brother of your order,
Visit both prince and people. Therefore I prithee
Supply me with the habit, and instruct me
How I may formally in person bear
Like a true friar. More reasons for this action
At our more leisure shall I render you.
Only this one: Lord Angelo is precise,
Stands at a guard with envy, scarce confesses
That his blood flows or that his appetite
Is more to bread than stone. Hence shall we see,
If power change purpose, what our seemers be.

They exit.

Scene 4

Enter Isabella and Francisca, a Nun.

Isabella
And have you nuns no farther privileges?
Nun Are not these large enough?
Isabella
Yes, truly. I speak not as desiring more,
But rather wishing a more strict restraint
Upon the sisterhood, the votarists of Saint Clare.

Lucio, within
Ho, peace be in this place!
Isabella Who’s that which calls?
Nun
It is a man’s voice. Gentle Isabella,
Turn you the key and know his business of him.
You may; I may not. You are yet unsworn.
When you have vowed, you must not speak with men
But in the presence of the Prioress.
Then, if you speak, you must not show your face;
Or if you show your face, you must not speak.
He calls again. I pray you answer him.

Isabella
Peace and prosperity! Who is ’t that calls?

Enter Lucio.
LUCIO

Hail, virgin, if you be, as those cheek-roses
Proclaim you are no less. Can you so stead me
As bring me to the sight of Isabella,
A novice of this place and the fair sister
To her unhappy brother, Claudio?

ISABELLA

Why “her unhappy brother”? Let me ask,
The rather for I now must make you know
I am that Isabella, and his sister.

LUCIO

Gentle and fair, your brother kindly greets you.
Not to be weary with you, he’s in prison.

ISABELLA

Woe me, for what?

LUCIO

For that which, if myself might be his judge,
He should receive his punishment in thanks:
He hath got his friend with child.

ISABELLA

Sir, make me not your story.

LUCIO

’Tis true.

I would not, though ’tis my familiar sin
With maids to seem the lapwing and to jest,
Tongue far from heart, play with all virgins so.
I hold you as a thing enskied and sainted,
By your renouncement an immortal spirit,
And to be talked with in sincerity
As with a saint.

ISABELLA

You do blaspheme the good in mocking me.

LUCIO

Do not believe it. Fewness and truth, ’tis thus:
Your brother and his lover have embraced;
As those that feed grow full, as blossoming time
That from the seedness the bare fallow brings
To teeming foison, even so her plenteous womb
Expresseth his full tilth and husbandry.

ISABELLA

Someone with child by him? My cousin Juliet?

LUCIO    Is she your cousin?

ISABELLA

Adoptedly, as schoolmaids change their names
By vain though apt affection.

LUCIO    She it is.

ISABELLA

O, let him marry her!

LUCIO    This is the point.
The Duke is very strangely gone from hence;
Bore many gentlemen, myself being one,
In hand, and hope of action; but we do learn,
By those that know the very nerves of state,
His [givings-out] were of an infinite distance
From his true-meant design. Upon his place,
And with full line of his authority,
Governs Lord Angelo, a man whose blood
Is very snow-broth; one who never feels
The wanton stings and motions of the sense,
But doth rebate and blunt his natural edge
With profits of the mind: study and fast.
He—to give fear to use and liberty,
Which have for long run by the hideous law
As mice by lions—hath picked out an act
Under whose heavy sense your brother’s life
Falls into forfeit. He arrests him on it,
And follows close the rigor of the statute
To make him an example. All hope is gone
Unless you have the grace by your fair prayer
To soften Angelo. And that’s my pith of business
’Twixt you and your poor brother.

ISABELLA    Doth he so

Seek his life?
LUCIO Has censured him already,
    And, as I hear, the Provost hath a warrant
    For ’s execution. 80
ISABELLA
    Alas, what poor ability’s in me
    To do him good?
LUCIO Assay the power you have.
ISABELLA
    My power? Alas, I doubt—
    Our doubts are traitors 85
    And makes us lose the good we oft might win
    By fearing to attempt. Go to Lord Angelo
    And let him learn to know, when maidens sue
    Men give like gods; but when they weep and kneel,
    All their petitions are as freely theirs 90
    As they themselves would owe them.
ISABELLA I’ll see what I can do.
LUCIO But speedily!
ISABELLA I will about it straight,
    No longer staying but to give the Mother 95
    Notice of my affair. I humbly thank you.
    Commend me to my brother. Soon at night
    I’ll send him certain word of my success.
LUCIO
    I take my leave of you.
ISABELLA Good sir, adieu. 100

They exit.
Scene 1

Enter Angelo, Escalus, Servants, and a Justice.

ANGELO

We must not make a scarecrow of the law,
Setting it up to fear the birds of prey,
And let it keep one shape till custom make it
Their perch and not their terror.

ESCALUS

Ay, but yet
Let us be keen and rather cut a little
Than fall and bruise to death. Alas, this gentleman
Whom I would save had a most noble father.
Let but your Honor know,
Whom I believe to be most strait in virtue,
That, in the working of your own affections,
Had time cohered with place, or place with wishing,
Or that the resolute acting of your blood
Could have attained th’ effect of your own purpose,
Whether you had not sometime in your life
Erred in this point which now you censure him,
And pulled the law upon you.

ANGELO

’Tis one thing to be tempted, Escalus,
Another thing to fall. I not deny
The jury passing on the prisoner’s life
May in the sworn twelve have a thief or two Guiltier than him they try. What’s open made to justice,

39
That justice seizes. What knows the laws
That thieves do pass on thieves? 'Tis very pregnant,
The jewel that we find, we stoop and take 't
Because we see it; but what we do not see,
We tread upon and never think of it.
You may not so extenuate his offense
For I have had such faults; but rather tell me,
When I that censure him do so offend,
Let mine own judgment pattern out my death,
And nothing come in partial. Sir, he must die.

Enter Provost.

ESCALUS
Be it as your wisdom will.

ANGELO Where is the Provost?

PROVOST
Here, if it like your Honor.

ANGELO See that Claudio
Be executed by nine tomorrow morning.
Bring him his confessor, let him be prepared,
For that's the utmost of his pilgrimage.

Provost exits.]

ESCALUS
Well, heaven forgive him and forgive us all.
Some rise by sin and some by virtue fall.
Some run from brakes of ice and answer none,
And some condemnèd for a fault alone.

Enter Elbow and Officers, with Froth and Pompey.]

ELBOW, to Officers
Come, bring them away. If these be good people in a commonweal that do nothing but use their abuses in common houses, I know no law. Bring them away.

ANGELO How now, sir, what's your name? And what's the matter?
ELBOW    If it please your Honor, I am the poor duke’s constable, and my name is Elbow. I do lean upon justice, sir, and do bring in here before your good Honor two notorious benefactors.

ANGelo    Benefactors? Well, what benefactors are they?
         Are they not malefactors?

ELBOW    If it please your Honor, I know not well what they are, but precise villains they are, that I am sure of, and void of all profanation in the world that good Christians ought to have.

ESCALUS, to Angelo This comes off well. Here’s a wise officer.

ANGelo, to Elbow Go to. What quality are they of?

ELBOW    Elbow is your name? Why dost thou not speak, Elbow?

POMPEY    He cannot, sir. He’s out at elbow.

ANGelo    What are you, sir?

ELBOW    He, sir? A tapster, sir, parcel bawd; one that serves a bad woman, whose house, sir, was, as they say, plucked down in the suburbs, and now she professes a hothouse, which I think is a very ill house too.

ESCALUS    How know you that?

ELBOW    My wife, sir, whom I detest before heaven and your Honor—

ESCALUS    How? Thy wife?

ELBOW    Ay, sir, whom I thank heaven is an honest woman—

ESCALUS    Dost thou detest her therefore?

ELBOW    I say, sir, I will detest myself also, as well as she,
         that this house, if it be not a bawd’s house, it is pity of her life, for it is a naughty house.

ESCALUS    How dost thou know that, constable?

ELBOW    Marry, sir, by my wife, who, if she had been a woman cardinally given, might have been accused in fornication, adultery, and all uncleanness there.

ESCALUS  By the woman’s means?

ELBOW  Ay, sir, by Mistress Overdone’s means; but as she spit in his face, so she defied him.

POMPEY,  "to Escalus"  Sir, if it please your Honor, this is not so.

ELBOW  Prove it before these varlets here, thou honorable man, prove it.

ESCALUS,  "to Angelo"  Do you hear how he misplaces?

POMPEY  Sir, she came in great with child, and longing, saving your Honor’s reverence, for stewed prunes.

Sir, we had but two in the house, which at that very distant time stood, as it were, in a fruit dish, a dish of some threepence; your Honors have seen such dishes; they are not china dishes, but very good dishes—

ESCALUS  Go to, go to. No matter for the dish, sir.

POMPEY  No, indeed, sir, not of a pin; you are therein in the right. But to the point: as I say, this Mistress Elbow, being, as I say, with child, and being great-bellied, and longing, as I said, for prunes; and having but two in the dish, as I said, Master Froth here, this very man, having eaten the rest, as I said, and, as I say, paying for them very honestly—for, as you know, Master Froth, I could not give you threepence again—

FROTH  No, indeed.

POMPEY  Very well. You being then, if you be remembered, cracking the stones of the foresaid prunes—

FROTH  Ay, so I did indeed.

POMPEY  Why, very well. I telling you then, if you be remembered, that such a one and such a one were past cure of the thing you wot of, unless they kept very good diet, as I told you—

FROTH  All this is true.
Why, very well then—

Come, you are a tedious fool. To the purpose:
what was done to Elbow’s wife that he hath cause to complain of? Come me to what was done to her.

Sir, your Honor cannot come to that yet.

No, sir, nor I mean it not.

Sir, but you shall come to it, by your Honor’s leave. And I beseech you, look into Master Froth here, sir, a man of fourscore pound a year, whose father died at Hallowmas—was ’t not at Hallowmas, Master Froth?

All-hallond Eve.

Why, very well. I hope here be truths.—He,
sir, sitting, as I say, in a lower chair, sir—
’Twas in the Bunch of Grapes, where indeed you have a delight to sit, have you not?

I have so, because it is an open room, and good for winter.

Why, very well then. I hope here be truths.

Sir, your Honor cannot come to that yet.

What was done to Elbow’s wife, once more?

Once, sir? There was nothing done to her once.

Once, sir? There was nothing done to her once.

This will last out a night in Russia
When nights are longest there. I’ll take my leave,
And leave you to the hearing of the cause,
Hoping you’ll find good cause to whip them all.

I think no less. Good morrow to your Lordship

Now, sir, come on. What was done to Elbow’s wife,

Once, sir? There was nothing done to her
once.

I beseech you, sir, ask him what this man did to my wife.

I beseech your Honor, ask me.

Well, sir, what did this gentleman to her?

I beseech you, sir, look in this gentleman’s face.—Good Master Froth, look upon his Honor.

’Tis for a good purpose.—Doth your Honor mark his face?

ESCALUS Ay, sir, very well.
POMPEY Nay, I beseech you, mark it well.

ESCALUS Well, I do so.

POMPEY Doth your Honor see any harm in his face?

ESCALUS Why, no.

POMPEY I’ll be supposed upon a book, his face is the worst thing about him. Good, then, if his face be the worst thing about him, how could Master Froth do the Constable’s wife any harm? I would know that of your Honor.

ESCALUS He’s in the right, constable. What say you to it?

ELBOW First, an it like you, the house is a respected house; next, this is a respected fellow, and his mistress is a respected woman.

POMPEY By this hand, sir, his wife is a more respected person than any of us all.

ELBOW Varlet, thou liest; thou liest, wicked varlet! The time is yet to come that she was ever respected with man, woman, or child.

POMPEY Sir, she was respected with him before he married with her.

ESCALUS Which is the wiser here, Justice or Iniquity? Is this true?

ELBOW, [to Pompey] O thou caitiff! O thou varlet! O thou wicked Hannibal! I respected with her before I was married to her?—If ever I was respected with her, or she with me, let not your Worship think me the poor duke’s officer.—Prove this, thou wicked Hannibal, or I’ll have mine action of batt’ry on thee.

ESCALUS If he took you a box o’ th’ ear, you might have your action of slander too.

ELBOW Marry, I thank your good Worship for it. What is 't your Worship’s pleasure I shall do with this wicked caitiff?

ESCALUS Truly, officer, because he hath some offenses in him that thou wouldst discover if thou couldst, let him continue in his courses till thou know’st what they are.

ELBOW Marry, I thank your Worship for it. ‘To Pompey.’

Thou seest, thou wicked varlet, now, what’s come upon thee. Thou art to continue now, thou varlet, thou art to continue.

ESCALUS, ‘to Froth’ Where were you born, friend?

FROTH Here in Vienna, sir.

ESCALUS Are you of fourscore pounds a year?

FROTH Yes, an ’t please you, sir.

ESCALUS So. ‘To Pompey.’ What trade are you of, sir?

POMPEY A tapster, a poor widow’s tapster.

ESCALUS Your mistress’ name?

POMPEY Mistress Overdone.

ESCALUS Hath she had any more than one husband?

POMPEY Nine, sir. Overdone by the last.

ESCALUS Nine?—Come hither to me, Master Froth. Master Froth, I would not have you acquainted with tapsters; they will draw you, Master Froth, and you will hang them. Get you gone, and let me hear no more of you.

FROTH I thank your Worship. For mine own part, I never come into any room in a taphouse but I am drawn in.

ESCALUS Well, no more of it, Master Froth. Farewell. ‘Froth exits.’

Come you hither to me, Master Tapster. What’s your name, Master Tapster?

POMPEY Pompey.

ESCALUS What else?

POMPEY Bum, sir.
ESCALUS  Troth, and your bum is the greatest thing about you, so that in the beastliest sense you are Pompey the Great. Pompey, you are partly a bawd, Pompey, howsoever you color it in being a tapster, are you not? Come, tell me true. It shall be the better for you.

POMPEY  Truly, sir, I am a poor fellow that would live.

ESCALUS  How would you live, Pompey? By being a bawd? What do you think of the trade, Pompey? Is it a lawful trade?

POMPEY  If the law would allow it, sir.

ESCALUS  But the law will not allow it, Pompey, nor it shall not be allowed in Vienna.

POMPEY  Does your Worship mean to geld and splay all the youth of the city?

ESCALUS  No, Pompey.

POMPEY  Truly, sir, in my poor opinion, they will to 't then. If your Worship will take order for the drabs and the knaves, you need not to fear the bawds.

ESCALUS  There is pretty orders beginning, I can tell you. It is but heading and hanging.

POMPEY  If you head and hang all that offend that way but for ten year together, you’ll be glad to give out a commission for more heads. If this law hold in Vienna ten year, I’ll rent the fairest house in it after threepence a bay. If you live to see this come to pass, say Pompey told you so.

ESCALUS  Thank you, good Pompey. And in requital of your prophecy, hark you: I advise you let me not find you before me again upon any complaint whatsoever; no, not for dwelling where you do. If I do, Pompey, I shall beat you to your tent and prove a shrewd Caesar to you. In plain dealing, Pompey, I shall have you whipped. So, for this time, Pompey, fare you well.

POMPEY  I thank your Worship for your good counsel.
"Aside. But I shall follow it as the flesh and fortune shall better determine. Whip me? No, no, let carman whip his jade. The valiant heart’s not whipped out of his trade."

He exits.

ESCALUS Come hither to me, Master Elbow. Come hither, Master Constable. How long have you been in this place of constable?

ELBOW Seven year and a half, sir.

ESCALUS I thought, by the readiness in the office, you had continued in it some time. You say seven years together?

ELBOW And a half, sir.

ESCALUS Alas, it hath been great pains to you. They do you wrong to put you so oft upon 't. Are there not men in your ward sufficient to serve it?

ELBOW Faith, sir, few of any wit in such matters. As they are chosen, they are glad to choose me for them. I do it for some piece of money and go through with all.

ESCALUS Look you bring me in the names of some six or seven, the most sufficient of your parish.

ELBOW To your Worship’s house, sir?

ESCALUS To my house. Fare you well.

"Elbow and Officers exit."

"To Justice. What’s o’clock, think you?"

JUSTICE Eleven, sir.

ESCALUS I pray you home to dinner with me.

JUSTICE I humbly thank you.

ESCALUS It grieves me for the death of Claudio, But there’s no remedy.

JUSTICE Lord Angelo is severe.

ESCALUS It is but needful. Mercy is not itself that oft looks so.
Pardon is still the nurse of second woe.
But yet, poor Claudio. There is no remedy.

Come, sir.

They exit.

Scene 2

Enter Provost and a Servant.

SERVANT
He’s hearing of a cause. He will come straight.
I’ll tell him of you.

Provost
Pray you do.

Servant exits.

Provost
I’ll know
His pleasure. Maybe he will relent. Alas,
He hath but as offended in a dream.
All sects, all ages smack of this vice, and he
To die for ’t?

Enter Angelo.

ANGELO
Now, what’s the matter, provost?

PROVOST
Is it your will Claudio shall die tomorrow?

ANGELO
Did not I tell thee yea? Hadst thou not order?
Why dost thou ask again?

PROVOST
Lest I might be too rash.
Under your good correction, I have seen
When, after execution, judgment hath Repented o’er his doom.

ANGELO
Go to. Let that be mine.
Do you your office, or give up your place
And you shall well be spared.

PROVOST
I crave your Honor’s pardon.
What shall be done, sir, with the groaning Juliet?
She’s very near her hour.

ANGELO Dispose of her
To some more fitter place, and that with speed.

\[Enter Servant.\]

SERVANT
Here is the sister of the man condemned
Desires access to you.

ANGELO
Hath he a sister?

PROVOST
Ay, my good lord, a very virtuous maid,
And to be shortly of a sisterhood,
If not already.

ANGELO, \[to Servant\] Well, let her be admitted.
\[Servant exits.\]

See you the fornicatress be removed.
Let her have needful but not lavish means.
There shall be order for 't.

\textit{Enter Lucio and Isabella.}

PROVOST, \[beginning to exit\] Save your Honor.
ANGELO
Stay a little while.  \[To Isabella.\] You’re welcome.
What’s your will?

ISABELLA
I am a woeful suitor to your Honor,
Please but your Honor hear me.

ANGELO
Well, what’s your suit?

ISABELLA
There is a vice that most I do abhor,
And most desire should meet the blow of justice,
For which I would not plead, but that I must;
For which I must not plead, but that I am
At war 'twixt will and will not.

ANGELO Well, the matter?

ISABELLA

I have a brother is condemned to die.
I do beseech you let it be his fault
And not my brother.

PROVOST, [aside] Heaven give thee moving graces.

ANGELO

Condemn the fault, and not the actor of it?
Why, every fault's condemned ere it be done.
Mine were the very cipher of a function
To fine the faults whose fine stands in record
And let go by the actor.

ISABELLA O just but severe law!

I had a brother, then. Heaven keep your Honor.

LUCIO, [aside to Isabella]

Give 't not o'er so. To him again, entreat him,
Kneel down before him, hang upon his gown.
You are too cold. If you should need a pin,
You could not with more tame a tongue desire it.

To him, I say.

ISABELLA, [to Angelo]

Must he needs die?

ANGELO Maiden, no remedy.

ISABELLA

Yes, I do think that you might pardon him,
And neither heaven nor man grieve at the mercy.

ANGELO I will not do 't.

ISABELLA But can you if you would?

ANGELO

Look what I will not, that I cannot do.

ISABELLA

But might you do 't and do the world no wrong
If so your heart were touched with that remorse
As mine is to him?

ANGELO He’s sentenced. ’Tis too late.

LUCIO, [aside to Isabella] You are too cold.

ISABELLA

Too late? Why, no. I that do speak a word
May call it [back] again. Well believe this:
No ceremony that to great ones longs,
Not the king’s crown, nor the deputed sword,
The marshal’s truncheon, nor the judge’s robe
Become them with one half so good a grace
As mercy does.
If he had been as you, and you as he,
You would have slipped like him, but he like you
Would not have been so stern.

ANGELO Pray you begone.

ISABELLA

I would to heaven I had your potency,
And you were Isabel. Should it then be thus?
No. I would tell what ’twere to be a judge
And what a prisoner.

LUCIO, [aside to Isabella] Ay, touch him; there’s the vein.

ANGELO Your brother is a forfeit of the law,
And you but waste your words.

ISABELLA Alas, alas!

Why all the souls that were were forfeit once,
And He that might the vantage best have took Found out the remedy. How would you be
If He which is the top of judgment should
But judge you as you are? O, think on that,
And mercy then will breathe within your lips
Like man new-made.

ANGELO Be you content, fair maid.
It is the law, not I, condemn your brother.
Were he my kinsman, brother, or my son,
It should be thus with him. He must die tomorrow.

ISABELLA

Tomorrow? O, that’s sudden! Spare him, spare him.
He’s not prepared for death. Even for our kitchens
We kill the fowl of season. Shall we serve heaven
With less respect than we do minister
To our gross selves? Good, good my lord, bethink you.

Who is it that hath died for this offense?
There’s many have committed it.

LUCIO, aside to Isabella Ay, well said.

ANGELO

The law hath not been dead, though it hath slept.
Those many had not dared to do that evil
If the first that did th’ edict infringe
Had answered for his deed. Now ’tis awake,
Takes note of what is done, and, like a prophet,
Looks in a glass that shows what future evils—
Either now, or by remissness new-conceived,
And so in progress to be hatched and born—
Are now to have no successive degrees
But, ’ere they live, to end.

Yet show some pity.

ISABELLA

I show it most of all when I show justice,
For then I pity those I do not know,
Which a dismissed offense would after gall,
And do him right that, answering one foul wrong,
Lives not to act another. Be satisfied;
Your brother dies tomorrow; be content.

ISABELLA

So you must be the first that gives this sentence,
And he that suffers. O, it is excellent
To have a giant’s strength, but it is tyrannous
To use it like a giant.
LUCIO, \textit{aside to Isabella} That’s well said.

ISABELLA Could great men thunder
As Jove himself does, Jove would never be quiet,
For every pelting, petty officer
Would use his heaven for thunder,
Nothing but thunder. Merciful heaven,
Thou rather with thy sharp and sulphurous bolt
Splits the unwedgeable and gnarlèd oak,
Than the soft myrtle. But man, proud man,
Dressed in a little brief authority,
Most ignorant of what he’s most assured,
His glassy essence, like an angry ape
Plays such fantastic tricks before high heaven
As makes the angels weep, who with our spleens
Would all themselves laugh mortal.

LUCIO, \textit{aside to Isabella}
O, to him, to him, wench. He will relent.
He’s coming. I perceive ’t.

PROVOST, \textit{aside} Pray heaven she win him.

ISABELLA
We cannot weigh our brother with ourself.
Great men may jest with saints; ’tis wit in them,
But in the less, foul profanation.

LUCIO, \textit{aside to Isabella}
Thou ’rt i’ th’ right, girl. More o’ that.

ISABELLA
That in the captain’s but a choleric word
Which in the soldier is flat blasphemy.

LUCIO, \textit{aside to Isabella}
Art avised o’ that? More on ’t.

ANGELO
Why do you put these sayings upon me?

ISABELLA
Because authority, though it err like others,
Hath yet a kind of medicine in itself.
That skins the vice o’ th’ top. Go to your bosom,
Knock there, and ask your heart what it doth know
That’s like my brother’s fault. If it confess
A natural guiltiness such as is his,
Let it not sound a thought upon your tongue
Against my brother’s life.

ANGELO, \( \textit{aside} \)

She speaks, and ’tis such sense
That my sense breeds with it. \( \textit{He begins to exit.} \)
Fare you well.

ISABELLA  Gentle my lord, turn back.

ANGELO  I will bethink me. Come again tomorrow.

ISABELLA  Hark how I’ll bribe you. Good my lord, turn back.

ANGELO  How? Bribe me?

ISABELLA  Ay, with such gifts that heaven shall share with you.

LUCIO, \( \textit{aside to Isabella} \)

You had marred all else.

ISABELLA  Not with fond sicles of the tested gold,
Or stones whose rate are either rich or poor
As fancy values them, but with true prayers
That shall be up at heaven and enter there
Ere sunrise, prayers from preservèd souls,
From fasting maids whose minds are dedicate
To nothing temporal.

ANGELO  Well, come to me tomorrow.

LUCIO, \( \textit{aside to Isabella} \)
Go to, ’tis well; away.

ISABELLA  Heaven keep your Honor safe.

ANGELO, \( \textit{aside} \)

Amen.

ANGELO  For I am that way going to temptation
Where prayers cross.

ISABELLA  At what hour tomorrow

ANGELO  Shall I attend your Lordship?

ANGELO  At any time ’fore noon.
ISABELLA   Save your Honor.

[She exits, with Lucio and Provost.]

ANGELO   From thee, even from thy virtue.

What’s this? What’s this? Is this her fault or mine?
The tempter or the tempted, who sins most, ha?
Not she, nor doth she tempt; but it is I
That, lying by the violet in the sun,
Do as the carrion does, not as the flower,
Corrupt with virtuous season. Can it be
That modesty may more betray our sense
Than woman’s lightness? Having waste ground enough,

Shall we desire to raze the sanctuary
And pitch our evils there? O fie, fie, fie!
What dost thou, or what art thou, Angelo?
Dost thou desire her fouldly for those things
That make her good? O, let her brother live.

Thieves for their robbery have authority
When judges steal themselves. What, do I love her
That I desire to hear her speak again
And feast upon her eyes? What is ’t I dream on?
O cunning enemy that, to catch a saint,

With saints dost bait thy hook. Most dangerous
Is that temptation that doth goad us on
To sin in loving virtue. Never could the strumpet

With all her double vigor, art and nature,
Once stir my temper, but this virtuous maid
Subdues me quite. Ever till now

When men were fond, I smiled and wondered how.

He exits.
Scene 3

Enter Duke, [disguised as a Friar\(^1\)] and Provost.

DUKE, [\textit{as Friar}\(^1\)]

Hail to you, provost, so I think you are.

PROVOST

I am the Provost. What's your will, good friar?

DUKE, [\textit{as Friar}\(^1\)]

Bound by my charity and my blest order,
I come to visit the afflicted spirits
Here in the prison. Do me the common right
To let me see them, and to make me know
The nature of their crimes, that I may minister
To them accordingly.

PROVOST

I would do more than that if more were needful.

Enter Juliet.

Look, here comes one, a gentlewoman of mine,
Who, falling in the flaws of her own youth,
Hath blistered her report. She is with child,
And he that got it, sentenced—a young man,
More fit to do another such offense
Than die for this.

DUKE, [\textit{as Friar}\(^1\)]

When must he die?

PROVOST

As I do think, tomorrow.

DUKE, [\textit{as Friar, to Juliet}\(^1\)]

\textit{To Juliet}\(^1\) I have provided for you. Stay awhile
And you shall be conducted.

DUKE, [\textit{as Friar}\(^1\)]

Repent you, fair one, of the sin you carry?

JULIET

I do; and bear the shame most patiently.

DUKE, [\textit{as Friar}\(^1\)]

I'll teach you how you shall arraign your conscience,
And try your penitence, if it be sound
Or hollowly put on.

JULIET I’ll gladly learn.

DUKE, [as Friar] Love you the man that wronged you?

JULIET Yes, as I love the woman that wronged him.

DUKE, [as Friar]

So then it seems your most offenseful act
Was mutually committed?

JULIET Mutually.

DUKE, [as Friar]

Then was your sin of heavier kind than his.

JULIET I do confess it and repent it, father.

DUKE, [as Friar]

’Tis meet so, daughter; but lest you do repent
As that the sin hath brought you to this shame,
Which sorrow is always toward ourselves, not heaven,
Showing we would not spare heaven as we love it,
But as we stand in fear—

JULIET I do repent me as it is an evil,

And take the shame with joy.

DUKE, [as Friar] There rest.

Your partner, as I hear, must die tomorrow,
And I am going with instruction to him.
Grace go with you. Benedicite. He exits.

JULIET Must die tomorrow? O injurious love
That respites me a life, whose very comfort
Is still a dying horror.

PROVOST ’Tis pity of him. They exit.
Scene 4

Enter Angelo.

ANGELO

When I would pray and think, I think and pray
To several subjects. Heaven hath my empty words,
Whilst my invention, hearing not my tongue,
Anchors on Isabel. `God\(^\text{7}\)` in my mouth,
As if I did but only chew His name,
And in my heart the strong and swelling evil
Of my conception. The state whereon I studied
Is, like a good thing being often read,
Grown sere\(^\text{1}\) and tedious. Yea, my gravity,
Wherein—let no man hear me—I take pride,
Could I with boot change for an idle plume
Which the air beats for vain. O place, O form,
How often dost thou with thy case, thy habit,
Wrench awe from fools, and tie the wiser souls
To thy false seeming! Blood, thou art blood.
Let’s write “good angel” on the devil’s horn.
’Tis not the devil’s crest. ‘Knock within.’
How now, who’s there?

Enter Servant.

SERVANT

One Isabel, a sister, desires access to you.

ANGELO

Teach her the way. ‘Servant exits.’ O heavens,
Why does my blood thus muster to my heart,
Making both it unable for itself
And dispossessioning all my other parts
Of necessary fitness?
So play the foolish throngs with one that swoons,
Come all to help him, and so stop the air
By which he should revive. And even so
The general subject to a well-wished king
Quit their own part, and in obsequious fondness Crowd to his presence, where their untaught love
Must needs appear offense.

Enter Isabella.

How now, fair maid?

Isabella I am come to know your pleasure.

Angelo

That you might know it would much better please me
Than to demand what 'tis. Your brother cannot live.

Isabella Even so. Heaven keep your Honor.

Angelo

Yet may he live a while. And it may be
As long as you or I. Yet he must die.

Isabella Under your sentence?

Angelo Yea.

Isabella

When, I beseech you? That in his reprieve,
Longer or shorter, he may be so fitted
That his soul sicken not.

Angelo

Ha! Fie, these filthy vices! It were as good
To pardon him that hath from nature stolen
A man already made, as to remit
Their saucy sweetness that do coin God's image
In stamps that are forbid. 'Tis all as easy
Falsely to take away a life true made
As to put metal in restrainèd means
To make a false one.

Isabella

'Tis set down so in heaven, but not in Earth.

Angelo

Say you so? Then I shall pose you quickly:
Which had you rather, that the most just law
Now took your brother’s life, 'or, to redeem him,
Give up your body to such sweet uncleanness
As she that he hath stained?

ISABELLA Sir, believe this:
I had rather give my body than my soul.

ANGELO I talk not of your soul. Our compelled sins
Stand more for number than for accompt.

ISABELLA How say you?

ANGELO Nay, I’ll not warrant that, for I can speak Against the thing I say. Answer to this:
I, now the voice of the recorded law,
Pronounce a sentence on your brother’s life.
Might there not be a charity in sin
To save this brother’s life?

ISABELLA Please you to do ’t,
I’ll take it as a peril to my soul,
It is no sin at all, but charity.

ANGELO Pleased you to do ’t, at peril of your soul,
Were equal poise of sin and charity.

ISABELLA That I do beg his life, if it be sin
Heaven let me bear it. You granting of my suit,
If that be sin, I’ll make it my morn prayer
To have it added to the faults of mine
And nothing of your answer.

ANGELO Nay, but hear me.
Your sense pursues not mine. Either you are ignorant,
Or seem so, crafty, and that’s not good.

ISABELLA Let me be ignorant and in nothing good,
But graciously to know I am no better.

ANGELO Thus wisdom wishes to appear most bright
When it doth tax itself, as these black masks
Proclaim an ensheild beauty ten times louder
Than beauty could, displayed. But mark me.
To be receivèd plain, I’ll speak more gross:
Your brother is to die.

ISABELLA    So.

ANGELO

And his offense is so, as it appears,
Accountant to the law upon that pain.

ISABELLA    True.

ANGELO

Admit no other way to save his life—
As I subscribe not that, nor any other—
But, in the loss of question, that you, his sister,
Finding yourself desired of such a person
Whose credit with the judge, or own great place,
Could fetch your brother from the manacles
Of the all-binding law, and that there were
No earthly mean to save him but that either
You must lay down the treasures of your body
To this supposed, or else to let him suffer,
What would you do?

ISABELLA

As much for my poor brother as myself.
That is, were I under the terms of death,
Th’ impression of keen whips I’d wear as rubies
And strip myself to death as to a bed
That longing have been sick for, ere I’d yield
My body up to shame.

ANGELO    Then must your brother die.

ISABELLA    And ’twere the cheaper way.

ANGELO

Better it were a brother died at once
Than that a sister, by redeeming him,
Should die forever.

ISABELLA

As much for my poor brother as myself.

ANGELO

Were not you then as cruel as the sentence
That you have slandered so?
ISABELLA

Ignomy in ransom and free pardon
Are of two houses. Lawful mercy
Is nothing kin to foul redemption.

ANGELO

You seemed of late to make the law a tyrant,
And rather proved the sliding of your brother
A merriment than a vice.

ISABELLA

O, pardon me, my lord. It oft falls out,
To have what we would have, we speak not what we mean.
I something do excuse the thing I hate
For his advantage that I dearly love.

ANGELO

We are all frail.

ISABELLA Else let my brother die,
If not a fedary but only he Owe and succeed thy weakness.

ANGELO Nay, women are frail too.

ISABELLA

Ay, as the glasses where they view themselves,
Which are as easy broke as they make forms.
Women—help, heaven—men their creation mar
In profiting by them. Nay, call us ten times frail,
For we are soft as our complexions are,
And credulous to false prints.

ANGELO I think it well.

And from this testimony of your own sex,
Since I suppose we are made to be no stronger
Than faults may shake our frames, let me be bold.
I do arrest your words. Be that you are—
That is, a woman. If you be more, you’re none.
If you be one, as you are well expressed
By all external warrants, show it now
By putting on the destined livery.
ISABELLA
I have no tongue but one. Gentle my lord,
Let me entreat you speak the former language.

ANGELO  Plainly conceive I love you.

ISABELLA  My brother did love Juliet,
And you tell me that he shall die for 't.

ANGELO
He shall not, Isabel, if you give me love.

ISABELLA
I know your virtue hath a license in 't
Which seems a little fouler than it is
To pluck on others.

ANGELO  Believe me, on mine honor,
My words express my purpose.

ISABELLA
Ha! Little honor to be much believed,
And most pernicious purpose. Seeming, seeming!
I will proclaim thee, Angelo, look for 't.
Sign me a present pardon for my brother
Or with an outstretched throat I’ll tell the world aloud
What man thou art.

ANGELO  Who will believe thee, Isabel?
My unsoiled name, th’ austereness of my life,
My vouch against you, and my place i’ th’ state
Will so your accusation overweigh
That you shall stifle in your own report
And smell of calumny. I have begun,
And now I give my sensual race the rein.
Fit thy consent to my sharp appetite;
Lay by all nicety and prolixious blushes
That banish what they sue for. Redeem thy brother
By yielding up thy body to my will,
Or else he must not only die the death,
But thy unkindness shall his death draw out
To ling’ring sufferance. Answer me tomorrow,
Or by the affection that now guides me most,
I’ll prove a tyrant to him. As for you,
Say what you can, my false o’erweighs your true.

_He exits._

ISABELLA

To whom should I complain? Did I tell this,
Who would believe me? O, perilous mouths,
That bear in them one and the selfsame tongue,
Either of condemnation or approof,
Bidding the law make curtsy to their will,
Hooking both right and wrong to th’ appetite,
To follow as it draws. I’ll to my brother.
Though he hath fall’n by prompture of the blood,
Yet hath he in him such a mind of honor
That, had he twenty heads to tender down
On twenty bloody blocks, he’d yield them up
Before his sister should her body stoop
To such abhorred pollution.
Then, Isabel, live chaste, and, brother, die.
More than our brother is our chastity.
I’ll tell him yet of Angelo’s request,
And fit his mind to death, for his soul’s rest.

_She exits._
Scene 1

Enter Duke [as a Friar], Claudio, and Provost.

DUKE, [as Friar]

So then you hope of pardon from Lord Angelo?

CLAUDIO

The miserable have no other medicine
But only hope.
I have hope to live and am prepared to die.

DUKE, [as Friar]

Be absolute for death. Either death or life
Shall thereby be the sweeter. Reason thus with life:
If I do lose thee, I do lose a thing
That none but fools would keep. A breath thou art,
Servile to all the skyey influences
That [doth] this habitation where thou keep’st
Hourly afflict. Merely, thou art death’s fool,
For him thou labor’st by thy flight to shun,
And yet runn’st toward him still. Thou art not noble,
For all th’ accommodations that thou bear’st
Are nursed by baseness. Thou ’rt by no means valiant,
For thou dost fear the soft and tender fork
Of a poor worm. Thy best of rest is sleep,
And that thou oft provok’st, yet grossly fear’st
Thy death, which is no more. Thou art not thyself,
For thou exists on many a thousand grains
That issue out of dust. Happy thou art not,
For what thou hast not, still thou striv’st to get,
And what thou hast, forget’st. Thou art not certain,
For thy complexion shifts to strange effects
After the moon. If thou art rich, thou ’rt poor,
For, like an ass whose back with ingots bows,
Thou bear’st thy heavy riches but a journey,
And death unloads thee. Friend hast thou none,
For thine own bowels which do call thee sire,
The mere effusion of thy proper loins,
Do curse the gout, serpigo, and the rheum
For ending thee no sooner. Thou hast nor youth nor age,
But as it were an after-dinner’s sleep
Dreaming on both, for all thy blessèd youth
Becomes as agèd and doth beg the alms
Of palsied ald; and when thou art old and rich,
Thou hast neither heat, affection, limb, nor beauty
To make thy riches pleasant. What’s yet in this
That bears the name of life? Yet in this life
Lie hid more thousand deaths; yet death we fear,
That makes these odds all even.

CLAUDIO I humbly thank you.

To sue to live, I find I seek to die,
And seeking death, find life. Let it come on.

ISABELLA, within

What ho! Peace here, grace, and good company.

PROVOST

Who’s there? Come in. The wish deserves a welcome.

DUKE, as Friar, to Claudio

Dear sir, ere long I’ll visit you again.

CLAUDIO Most holy sir, I thank you.

Enter Isabella.

ISABELLA, to Provost

My business is a word or two with Claudio.
PROVOST

And very welcome.—Look, signior, here’s your sister.

DUKE, [as Friar] Provost, a word with you.

PROVOST As many as you please.

DUKE, [as Friar, aside to Provost]

Bring me to hear them speak, where I may be concealed.

"Duke and Provost exit."

CLAUDIO Now, sister, what’s the comfort?

ISABELLA Why,

As all comforts are, most good, most good indeed.

Lord Angelo, having affairs to heaven,

Intends you for his swift ambassador,

Where you shall be an everlasting leiger;

Therefore your best appointment make with speed.

Tomorrow you set on.

CLAUDIO Is there no remedy?

ISABELLA None but such remedy as, to save a head,

To cleave a heart in twain.

CLAUDIO But is there any?

ISABELLA Yes, brother, you may live.

There is a devilish mercy in the judge,

If you’ll implore it, that will free your life

But fetter you till death.

CLAUDIO Perpetual durance?

ISABELLA Ay, just; perpetual durance, a restraint,

Though all the world’s vastity you had,

To a determined scope.

CLAUDIO But in what nature?

ISABELLA In such a one as, you consenting to ’t,

Would bark your honor from that trunk you bear

And leave you naked.
CLAUDIO  Let me know the point.

ISABELLA

O, I do fear thee, Claudio, and I quake
Lest thou a feverous life shouldst entail,
And six or seven winters more respect
Than a perpetual honor. Dar’st thou die?
The sense of death is most in apprehension,
And the poor beetle that we tread upon
In corporal sufferance finds a pang as great
As when a giant dies.

CLAUDIO  Why give you me this shame?

Think you I can a resolution fetch
From flowery tenderness? If I must die,
I will encounter darkness as a bride,
And hug it in mine arms.

There spake my brother! There my father’s grave
Did utter forth a voice. Yes, thou must die.
Thou art too noble to conserve a life
In base appliances. This outward-sainted deputy—
Whose settled visage and deliberate word
Nips youth i’ th’ head, and follies doth renew
As falcon doth the fowl—is yet a devil.

The prenzie Angelo?

O, ’tis the cunning livery of hell
The damned’st body to invest and cover
In prenzie guards. Dost thou think, Claudio,
If I would yield him my virginity
Thou mightst be freed?

CLAUDIO  O heavens, it cannot be!

ISABELLA

Yes, he would give ’t thee; from this rank offense,
So to offend him still. This night’s the time
That I should do what I abhor to name,
Or else thou diest tomorrow.

CLAUDIO    Thou shalt not do ’t.

ISABELLA   O, were it but my life,
            I’d throw it down for your deliverance
            As frankly as a pin.

CLAUDIO    Thanks, dear Isabel.

ISABELLA   Be ready, Claudio, for your death tomorrow.

CLAUDIO    Yes. Has he affections in him
            That thus can make him bite the law by th’ nose,
            When he would force it? Sure it is no sin,
            Or of the deadly seven it is the least.

ISABELLA   Which is the least?

CLAUDIO    If it were damnable, he being so wise,
            Why would be for the momentary trick
            Be perdurably fined? O, Isabel—

ISABELLA   What says my brother?

CLAUDIO    Death is a fearful thing.

ISABELLA   And shamèd life a hateful.

CLAUDIO    Ay, but to die, and go we know not where,
            To lie in cold obstruction and to rot,
            This sensible warm motion to become
            A kneaded clod; and the delighted spirit
            To bathe in fiery floods, or to reside
            In thrilling region of thick-ribbèd ice,
            To be imprisoned in the viewless winds
            And blown with restless violence round about
            The pendent world; or to be worse than worst
            Of those that lawless and incertain thought
            Imagine howling—’tis too horrible.
            The weariest and most loathèd worldly life
            That age, ache, [penury,] and imprisonment
Can lay on nature is a paradise
To what we fear of death.

ISABELLA    Alas, alas!

CLAUDIO     Sweet sister, let me live.

What sin you do to save a brother’s life,
Nature dispenses with the deed so far
That it becomes a virtue.

ISABELLA    O, you beast!
O faithless coward, O dishonest wretch,
Wilt thou be made a man out of my vice?
Is ‘t not a kind of incest to take life
From thine own sister’s shame? What should I think?
Heaven shield my mother played my father fair,
For such a warped slip of wilderness
Ne’er issued from his blood. Take my defiance;
Die, perish. Might but my bending down
Reprieve thee from thy fate, it should proceed.
I’ll pray a thousand prayers for thy death,
No word to save thee.

CLAUDIO     Nay, hear me, Isabel—

ISABELLA    O, fie, fie, fie!
Thy sin’s not accidental, but a trade.
Mercy to thee would prove itself a bawd.
’Tis best that thou diest quickly.

CLAUDIO     O, hear me, Isabella—

[Enter Duke as a Friar.]

DUKE, [as Friar, to Isabella]
Vouchsafe a word, young sister, but one word.

ISABELLA    What is your will?

DUKE, [as Friar]    Might you dispense with your leisure, I would by and by have some speech with you. The satisfaction I would require is likewise your own benefit.

ISABELLA    I have no superfluous leisure. My stay must DUKE, [as Friar, taking Claudio aside] Son, I have overheard what hath passed between you and your sister. Angelo had never the purpose to corrupt her; only he hath made an assay of her virtue, to practice his judgment with the disposition of natures. She, having the truth of honor in her, hath made him that gracious denial which he is most glad to receive. I am confessor to Angelo, and I know this to be true. Therefore prepare yourself to death. Do not satisfy your resolution with hopes that are fallible. Tomorrow you must die. Go to your knees and make ready.

CLAUDIO Let me ask my sister pardon. I am so out of love with life that I will sue to be rid of it.

DUKE, [as Friar] Hold you there. Farewell.—Provost, a word with you.

[Enter Provost.]

PROVOST What’s your will, father?

DUKE, [as Friar] That now you are come, you will be gone. Leave me awhile with the maid. My mind promises with my habit no loss shall touch her by my company.

PROVOST In good time. He exits, [with Claudio.]

DUKE, [as Friar, to Isabella] The hand that hath made you fair hath made you good. The goodness that is cheap in beauty makes beauty brief in goodness, but grace, being the soul of your complexion, shall keep the body of it ever fair. The assault that Angelo hath made to you, fortune hath conveyed to my understanding; and but that frailty hath examples for his falling, I should wonder at Angelo. How will you do to content this substitute and to save your brother?
DUKE, [as Friar] That shall not be much amiss. Yet, as the matter now stands, he will avoid your accusation: he made trial of you only. Therefore, fasten your ear on my advisings. To the love I have in doing good, a remedy presents itself. I do make myself believe that you may most uprighteously do a poor wronged lady a merited benefit, redeem your brother from the angry law, do no stain to your own gracious person, and much please the absent duke, if peradventure he shall ever return to have hearing of this business.

ISABELLA Let me hear you speak farther. I have spirit to do anything that appears not foul in the truth of my spirit.

DUKE, [as Friar] Virtue is bold, and goodness never fearful. Have you not heard speak of Mariana, the sister of Frederick, the great soldier who miscarried at sea?

ISABELLA I have heard of the lady, and good words went with her name.

DUKE, [as Friar] She should this Angelo have married, was affianced to her oath, and the nuptial appointed. Between which time of the contract and limit of the solemnity, her brother Frederick was wrecked at sea, having in that perished vessel the dowry of his sister. But mark how heavily this befell to the poor gentlewoman. There she lost a noble and renowned brother, in his love toward her ever most kind and natural; with him, the portion and sinew of her fortune, her marriage dowry; with both, her combine husband, this well-seeming Angelo.

ISABELLA Can this be so? Did Angelo so leave her?

DUKE, [as Friar] Left her in her tears and dried not one of them with his comfort, swallowed his vows whole, pretending in her discoveries of dishonor; in few, bestowed her on her own lamentation, which she yet wears for his sake; and he, a marble to her tears, is washed with them but relents not.

ISABELLA What a merit were it in death to take this poor maid from the world! What corruption in this life, that it will let this man live! But how out of this can she avail?

DUKE, [as Friar] It is a rupture that you may easily heal, and the cure of it not only saves your brother, but keeps you from dishonor in doing it.

ISABELLA Show me how, good father.

DUKE, [as Friar] This forenamed maid hath yet in her the continuance of her first affection. His unjust unkindness, that in all reason should have quenched her love, hath, like an impediment in the current, made it more violent and unruly. Go you to Angelo, answer his requiring with a plausible obedience, agree with his demands to the point. Only refer yourself to this advantage: first, that your stay with him may not be long, that the time may have all shadow and silence in it, and the place answer to convenience. This being granted in course, and now follows all: we shall advise this wronged maid to steady up your appointment, go in your place. If the encounter acknowledge itself hereafter, it may compel him to her recompense; and here, by this, is your brother saved, your honor untainted, the poor Mariana advantaged, and the corrupt deputy scaled. The maid will I frame and make fit for his attempt. If you think well to carry this as you may,
the doubleness of the benefit defends the deceit from reproof. What think you of it?

ISABELLA The image of it gives me content already, and
I trust it will grow to a most prosperous perfection.

DUKE, as Friar It lies much in your holding up. Haste you speedily to Angelo. If for this night he entreat you to his bed, give him promise of satisfaction. I will presently to Saint Luke’s. There at the moated grange resides this dejected Mariana. At that place call upon me, and dispatch with Angelo that it may be quickly.

ISABELLA I thank you for this comfort. Fare you well, good father.

She exits. The Duke remains.

「Scene 2」

Enter Elbow, Pompey, and Officers.

ELBOW, to Pompey Nay, if there be no remedy for it but that you will needs buy and sell men and women like beasts, we shall have all the world drink brown and white bastard.

DUKE, as Friar, aside O heavens, what stuff is here?

POMPEY ’Twas never merry world since, of two usuries, the merriest was put down, and the worser allowed by order of law a furred gown to keep him warm, and furred with fox and lambskins too, to signify that craft, being richer than innocency, stands for the facing.

ELBOW Come your way, sir.—Bless you, good father friar.

DUKE, as Friar And you, good brother father. What offense hath this man made you, sir?

ELBOW Marry, sir, he hath offended the law; and, sir,
we take him to be a thief too, sir, for we have found upon him, sir, a strange picklock, which we have sent to the Deputy.

DUKE,  as Friar, to Pompey

Fie, sirrah, a bawd, a wicked bawd!
The evil that thou causest to be done,
That is thy means to live. Do thou but think
What 'tis to cram a maw or clothe a back
From such a filthy vice; say to thyself,
From their abominable and beastly touches
I drink, I eat,  array myself, and live.
Canst thou believe thy living is a life,
So stinkingly depending? Go mend, go mend.

POMPEY   Indeed, it does stink in some sort, sir. But yet, sir, I would prove—

DUKE,  as Friar

Nay, if the devil have given thee proofs for sin,
Thou wilt prove his.—Take him to prison, officer.
Correction and instruction must both work
Ere this rude beast will profit.

ELBOW   He must before the Deputy, sir; he has given him warning. The Deputy cannot abide a whoremaster.
If he be a whoremonger and comes before him, he were as good go a mile on his errand.

DUKE,  as Friar

That we were all, as some would seem to be,
From our faults, as faults from seeming, free.

ELBOW   His neck will come to your waist—a cord, sir.

Enter Lucio.

POMPEY   I spy comfort, I cry bail. Here's a gentleman and a friend of mine.

LUCIO   How now, noble Pompey? What, at the wheels of Caesar? Art thou led in triumph? What, is there none of Pygmalion's images, newly made woman, to be had now, for putting the hand in the pocket and extracting  it  clutched? What reply, ha? What sayst thou to this tune, matter, and method? Is ’t not drowned i’ th’ last rain, ha? What sayst thou, trot? Is the world as it was, man? Which is the way? Is it sad and few words? Or how? The trick of it?

DUKE, as Friar, aside Still thus, and thus; still worse.

LUCIO, to Pompey How doth my dear morsel, thy mistress? Procures she still, ha?

POMPEY Troth, sir, she hath eaten up all her beef, and she is herself in the tub.

LUCIO Why, ’tis good. It is the right of it. It must be so. Ever your fresh whore and your powdered bawd, an unshunned consequence; it must be so. Art going to prison, Pompey?

POMPEY Yes, faith, sir.

LUCIO Why, ’tis not amiss, Pompey. Farewell. Go say I sent thee thither. For debt, Pompey? Or how?

ELBOW For being a bawd, for being a bawd.

LUCIO Well, then, imprison him. If imprisonment be the due of a bawd, why, ’tis his right. Bawd is he, doubtless, and of antiquity too. Bawd born.—Farewell, good Pompey. Commend me to the prison, Pompey. You will turn good husband now, Pompey; you will keep the house.

POMPEY I hope, sir, your good Worship will be my bail.

LUCIO No, indeed, will I not, Pompey; it is not the wear. I will pray, Pompey, to increase your bondage. If you take it not patiently, why, your mettle is the more. Adieu, trusty Pompey.—Bless you, friar.

DUKE, as Friar And you.

LUCIO, to Pompey Does Bridget paint still, Pompey, ha?

ELBOW, to Pompey Come your ways, sir, come.

POMPEY, to Lucio You will not bail me, then, sir?

LUCIO Then, Pompey, nor now.—What news abroad, friar? What news?

ELBOW, to Pompey Come your ways, sir, come.
LUCIO  Go to kennel, Pompey, go.

  [Elbow, Pompey, and Officers exit.]

What news, friar, of the Duke?

DUKE, [as Friar]  I know none. Can you tell me of any?

LUCIO  Some say he is with the Emperor of Russia;
       other some, he is in Rome. But where is he, think you?

DUKE, [as Friar]  I know not where, but wheresoever, I wish him well.

LUCIO  It was a mad fantastical trick of him to steal from the state and usurp the beggary he was never born to. Lord Angelo dukes it well in his absence.
       He puts transgression to ’t.

DUKE, [as Friar]  He does well in ’t.

LUCIO  A little more lenity to lechery would do no harm in him. Something too crabbed that way, friar.

DUKE, [as Friar]  It is too general a vice, and severity must cure it.

LUCIO  Yes, in good sooth, the vice is of a great kindred;
       it is well allied, but it is impossible to extirp it quite, friar, till eating and drinking be put down. They say this Angelo was not made by man and woman after this downright way of creation. Is it true, think you?

DUKE, [as Friar]  How should he be made, then?

LUCIO  Some report a sea-maid spawned him; some, that he was begot between two stockfishes. But it is certain that when he makes water, his urine is congealed ice; that I know to be true. And he is a motion generative, that’s infallible.

DUKE, [as Friar]  You are pleasant, sir, and speak apace.

LUCIO  Why, what a ruthless thing is this in him, for the rebellion of a codpiece to take away the life of a man! Would the duke that is absent have done this?
       Ere he would have hanged a man for the getting a hundred bastards, he would have paid for the nursing a thousand. He had some feeling of the sport, he knew the service, and that instructed him to mercy.

DUKE, as Friar I never heard the absent duke much detected for women. He was not inclined that way.

LUCIO O, sir, you are deceived.

DUKE, as Friar ’Tis not possible.

LUCIO Who, not the Duke? Yes, your beggar of fifty; and his use was to put a ducat in her clack-dish. The Duke had crotchets in him. He would be drunk too, that let me inform you.

DUKE, as Friar You do him wrong, surely.

LUCIO Sir, I was an inward of his. A shy fellow was the Duke, and I believe I know the cause of his withdrawing.

DUKE, as Friar What, I prithee, might be the cause?

LUCIO No, pardon. ’Tis a secret must be locked within the teeth and the lips. But this I can let you understand: the greater file of the subject held the Duke to be wise.

DUKE, as Friar Wise? Why, no question but he was.

LUCIO A very superficial, ignorant, unweighing fellow.

DUKE, as Friar Either this is envy in you, folly, or mistaking. The very stream of his life and the business he hath helmed must, upon a warranted need, give him a better proclamation. Let him be but testimonied in his own bringings-forth, and he shall appear to the envious a scholar, a statesman, and a soldier. Therefore you speak unskillfully. Or, if your knowledge be more, it is much darkened in your malice.

LUCIO Sir, I know him, and I love him.

DUKE, as Friar Love talks with better knowledge, and knowledge with dearer love.

LUCIO Come, sir, I know what I know.

DUKE, as Friar I can hardly believe that, since you know not what you speak. But if ever the Duke return, as our prayers are he may, let me desire you to make your answer before him. If it be honest you have spoke, you have courage to maintain it. I am bound to call upon you, and, I pray you, your name?

LUCIO Sir, my name is Lucio, well known to the Duke.

DUKE, \textit{as Friar}\footnote{FTLN 1660} He shall know you better, sir, if I may live to report you.

LUCIO I fear you not.

DUKE, \textit{as Friar}\footnote{FTLN 1661} O, you hope the Duke will return no more, or you imagine me too unhurtful an opposite. But indeed I can do you little harm; you’ll forswear this again.

LUCIO I’ll be hanged first. Thou art deceived in me, friar. But no more of this. Canst thou tell if Claudio die tomorrow or no?

DUKE, \textit{as Friar}\footnote{FTLN 1662} Why should he die, sir?

LUCIO Why? For filling a bottle with a tundish. I would the Duke we talk of were returned again. This ungenitur'd agent will unpeople the province with continency. Sparrows must not build in his house eaves, because they are lecherous. The Duke yet would have dark deeds darkly answered. He would never bring them to light Would he were returned.

Marry, this Claudio is condemned for untrussing.

Farewell, good friar. I prithee pray for me. The Duke, I say to thee again, would eat mutton on Fridays. He’s now past it, yet—and I say to thee—he would mouth with a beggar though she smelt brown bread and garlic. Say that I said so. Farewell.

\textit{He exits.}

DUKE

No might nor greatness in mortality
Can censure scape. Back-wounding calumny
The whitest virtue strikes. What king so strong
Can tie the gall up in the slanderous tongue?
But who comes here?

Enter Escalus, Provost, [Officers,] and [Mistress Overdone, a] Bawd.

ESCALUS, [to Officers] Go, away with her to prison.
BAWD Good my lord, be good to me. Your Honor is accounted a merciful man, good my lord.
ESCALUS Double and treble admonition, and still forfeit in the same kind? This would make mercy swear and play the tyrant.
PROVOST A bawd of eleven years’ continuance, may it please your Honor.
BAWD, [to Escalus] My lord, this is one Lucio’s information against me. Mistress Kate Keepdown was with child by him in the Duke’s time; he promised her marriage. His child is a year and a quarter old come Philip and Jacob. I have kept it myself, and see how he goes about to abuse me.
ESCALUS That fellow is a fellow of much license. Let him be called before us. Away with her to prison.—Officer exit with Bawd. Provost, my brother Angelo will not be altered. Claudio must die tomorrow. Let him be furnished with divines and have all charitable preparation. If my brother wrought by my pity, it should not be so with him.
PROVOST So please you, this friar hath been with him, and advised him for th’ entertainment of death.
ESCALUS Good even, good father.
DUKE, [as Friar] Bliss and goodness on you.
ESCALUS Of whence are you?
DUKE, [as Friar] Not of this country, though my chance is now To use it for my time. I am a brother
Of gracious order, late come from the See
In special business from his Holiness.

ESCALUS  What news abroad i’ th’ world?

DUKE, [as Friar]  None but that there is so great a fever on goodness that the dissolution of it must cure it.
Novelty is only in request, and it is as dangerous to be aged in any kind of course as it is virtuous to be constant in any undertaking. There is scarce truth enough alive to make societies secure, but security enough to make fellowships accursed. Much upon this riddle runs the wisdom of the world. This news is old enough, yet it is every day’s news. I pray you, sir, of what disposition was the Duke?

ESCALUS  One that, above all other strifes, contended especially to know himself.

DUKE, [as Friar]  What pleasure was he given to?

ESCALUS  Rather rejoicing to see another merry than merry at anything which professed to make him rejoice—a gentleman of all temperance. But leave we him to his events, with a prayer they may prove prosperous, and let me desire to know how you find Claudio prepared. I am made to understand that you have lent him visitation.

DUKE, [as Friar]  He professes to have received no sinister measure from his judge but most willingly humbles himself to the determination of justice. Yet had he framed to himself, by the instruction of his frailty, many deceiving promises of life, which I, by my good leisure, have discredited to him, and now is he resolved to die.

ESCALUS  You have paid the heavens your function and the prisoner the very debt of your calling. I have labored for the poor gentleman to the extremest shore of my modesty, but my brother justice have I found so severe that he hath forced me to tell him he is indeed Justice.
DUKE, [as Friar]\  If his own life answer the straitness of his proceeding, it shall become him well; wherein if he chance to fail, he hath sentenced himself.

ESCALUS  I am going to visit the prisoner. Fare you well.

DUKE, [as Friar]\  Peace be with you.

[Escalus and Provost exit.]

DUKE

He who the sword of heaven will bear
Should be as holy as severe,
Pattern in himself to know,
Grace to stand, and virtue go;
More nor less to others paying
Than by self-offenses weighing.
Shame to him whose cruel striking
Kills for faults of his own liking.
Twice treble shame on Angelo,
To weed my vice, and let his grow.
O, what may man within him hide,
Though angel on the outward side!
How may likeness made in crimes,
Making practice on the times,
To draw with idle spiders’ strings
Most ponderous and substantial things.
Craft against vice I must apply.
With Angelo tonight shall lie
His old betrothèd but despisèd.
So disguise shall, by th’ disguisèd,
Pay with falsehood false exacting
And perform an old contracting.

He exits.
Scene 1

Enter Mariana, and Boy singing.

Song.

Take, O take those lips away,
That so sweetly were forsworn,
And those eyes, the break of day,
Lights that do mislead the morn.

But my kisses bring again, bring again,
Seals of love, but sealed in vain, sealed in vain.

Enter Duke [as a Friar.]

MARIANA, [to Boy]

Break off thy song and haste thee quick away.
Here comes a man of comfort, whose advice
Hath often stilled my brawling discontent.

[Boy exits.]

I cry you mercy, sir, and well could wish
You had not found me here so musical.
Let me excuse me, and believe me so,
My mirth it much displeased, but pleased my woe.

DUKE, [as Friar]

’Tis good, though music oft hath such a charm
To make bad good and good provoke to harm.
I pray you tell me, hath anybody inquired for me here today? Much upon this time have I promised here to meet.

MARIANA You have not been inquired after. I have sat here all day.

Enter Isabella.

DUKE, [as Friar] I do constantly believe you. The time is come even now. I shall crave your forbearance a little. Maybe I will call upon you anon for some advantage to yourself.

MARIANA I am always bound to you. She exits.

DUKE, [as Friar] Very well met, and welcome.

Isabella.

What is the news from this good deputy?

ISABELLA

He hath a garden circummured with brick,
Whose western side is with a vineyard backed;
And to that vineyard is a planchéd gate
That makes his opening with this bigger key.
This other doth command a little door
Which from the vineyard to the garden leads.
There have I made my promise, upon the Heavy middle of the night, to call upon him.

DUKE, [as Friar]

But shall you on your knowledge find this way?

ISABELLA

I have ta’en a due and wary note upon ’t.
With whispering and most guilty diligence,
In action all of precept, he did show me
The way twice o’er.

DUKE, [as Friar]

Are there no other tokens
Between you ’greed concerning her observance?

ISABELLA

No, none, but only a repair i’ th’ dark,
And that I have possessed him my most stay
Can be but brief, for I have made him know
I have a servant comes with me along
That stays upon me, whose persuasion is
I come about my brother.

DUKE, as Friar
'Tis well borne up.
I have not yet made known to Mariana
A word of this.—What ho, within; come forth.

Enter Mariana.

'To Mariana.]
I pray you be acquainted with this maid.
She comes to do you good.

ISABELLA I do desire the like.

DUKE, as Friar, to Mariana
Do you persuade yourself that I respect you?

MARIANA Good friar, I know you do, and have found it.

DUKE, as Friar
Take then this your companion by the hand,
Who hath a story ready for your ear.
I shall attend your leisure. But make haste.
The vaporous night approaches.

MARIANA, to Isabella Will 't please you walk aside?

Isabella and Mariana exit.

DUKE
O place and greatness, millions of false eyes
Are stuck upon thee; volumes of report
Run with these false, and, most contrarious, quest
Upon thy doings; thousand escapes of wit
Make thee the father of their idle dream
And rack thee in their fancies.

Enter Mariana and Isabella.

DUKE, as Friar
Welcome. How agreed?

ISABELLA
She'll take the enterprise upon her, father,
If you advise it.
DUKE, as Friar It is not my consent
    But my entreaty too.

ISABELLA, to Mariana Little have you to say
    When you depart from him, but, soft and low,
        “Remember now my brother.”

MARIANA Fear me not.

DUKE, as Friar
    Nor, gentle daughter, fear you not at all.
    He is your husband on a precontract.
    To bring you thus together ’tis no sin,
    Sith that the justice of your title to him
        Doth flourish the deceit. Come, let us go.
    Our corn’s to reap, for yet our tithe’s to sow.

    They exit.

Scene 2

Enter Provost, Pompey, and Officer.

PROVOST Come hither, sirrah. Can you cut off a man’s head?

POMPEY If the man be a bachelor, sir, I can; but if he be a married man, he’s his wife’s head, and I can never cut off a woman’s head.

PROVOST Come, sir, leave me your snatches, and yield me a direct answer. Tomorrow morning are to die Claudio and Barnardine. Here is in our prison a common executioner, who in his office lacks a helper. If you will take it on you to assist him, it shall redeem you from your gyves; if not, you shall have your full time of imprisonment and your deliverance with an unpitied whipping, for you have been a notorious bawd.

POMPEY Sir, I have been an unlawful bawd time out of mind, but yet I will be content to be a lawful hangman. I would be glad to receive some instruction from my fellow partner.

PROVOST What ho, Abhorson!—Where's Abhorson there?

Enter Abhorson.

ABHORSON Do you call, sir?

PROVOST Sirrah, here's a fellow will help you tomorrow in your execution. If you think it meet, compound with him by the year and let him abide here with you; if not, use him for the present and dismiss him. He cannot plead his estimation with you; he hath been a bawd.

ABHORSON A bawd, sir? Fie upon him! He will discredit our mystery.

PROVOST Go to, sir; you weigh equally. A feather will turn the scale. He exits.

POMPEY Pray, sir, by your good favor—for surely, sir, a good favor you have, but that you have a hanging look—do you call, sir, your occupation a mystery?

ABHORSON Ay, sir, a mystery.

POMPEY Painting, sir, I have heard say, is a mystery; and your whores, sir, being members of my occupation, using painting, do prove my occupation a mystery; but what mystery there should be in hanging, if I should be hanged, I cannot imagine.

ABHORSON Sir, it is a mystery.

POMPEY Proof?

ABHORSON Every true man's apparel fits your thief. If it be too little for your thief, your true man thinks it big enough; if it be too big for your thief, your thief thinks it little enough. So every true man's apparel fits your thief.

Enter Provost.

PROVOST Are you agreed?
POMPEY    Sir, I will serve him, for I do find your hangman is a more penitent trade than your bawd. He doth oftener ask forgiveness.
          \[to Abhorson\]
PROVOST, \[to Abhorson\]  You, sirrah, provide your block and your axe tomorrow, four o’clock.
          \[to Pompey\]
ABHORSON, \[to Pompey\]  Come on, bawd. I will instruct thee in my trade. Follow.
          \[Pompey and Abhorson\] exit.
          \[to Officer\]
PROVOST, \[to Officer\]
Call hither Barnardine and Claudio.
\[Officer exits.\]
          \[Officer exits.\]
FTLN 1930  Th’ one has my pity; not a jot the other,
          \[Claudio exits, with Officer.\]
Being a murderer, though he were my brother.

Enter Claudio, \[with Officer.\]

FTLN 1932  Look, here’s the warrant, Claudio, for thy death.
’Tis now dead midnight, and by eight tomorrow
Thou must be made immortal. Where’s Barnardine?
          \[Knock within.\]
CLAUDIO  As fast locked up in sleep as guiltless labor
When it lies starkly in the traveler’s bones.
He will not wake.
          \[Knock within.\]
PROVOST  Who can do good on him?
          \[Knock within.\]
FTLN 1944  Well, go, prepare yourself. \[Knock within.\]
What noise?—
Heaven give your spirits comfort. \[Claudio exits, with Officer.\]
Knock within.\]
By and by!—
FTLN 1943  I hope it is some pardon or reprieve
FTLN 1944  For the most gentle Claudio.

Enter Duke, \[as a Friar.\]

FTLN 1945  Welcome, father.
DUKE, [as Friar]

The best and wholesom’st spirits of the night
Envelop you, good provost. Who called here of late?

PROVOST

None since the curfew rung.

DUKE, [as Friar]

Not Isabel?

PROVOST

No.

DUKE, [as Friar]

They will, then, ere ’t be long.

PROVOST

What comfort is for Claudio?

DUKE, [as Friar]

There’s some in hope.

PROVOST

It is a bitter deputy.

DUKE, [as Friar]

Not so, not so. His life is paralleled
Even with the stroke and line of his great justice.
He doth with holy abstinence subdue
That in himself which he spurs on his power
To qualify in others. Were he mealed with that
Which he corrects, then were he tyrannous,
But this being so, he’s just. [Knock within.]

Provost exits.

This is a gentle provost. Seldom when
The steelèd jailer is the friend of men.

[Enter Provost. Knocking continues.]

How now, what noise? That spirit’s possessed with haste
That wounds th’ unsisting postern with these strokes.

PROVOST

There he must stay until the officer
Arise to let him in. He is called up.

DUKE, [as Friar]

Have you no countermand for Claudio yet,
But he must die tomorrow?

PROVOST

None, sir, none.
DUKE, ['as Friar']

As near the dawning, provost, as it is,
You shall hear more ere morning.

PROVOST

Happily
You something know, yet I believe there comes
No countermand. No such example have we.
Besides, upon the very siege of justice
Lord Angelo hath to the public ear
Professed the contrary.

Enter a Messenger.

This is his ['Lordship's'] man.

DUKE, ['as Friar'] And here comes Claudio's pardon.

MESSENER, ['giving Provost a paper'] My lord hath sent you this note, and by me this further charge: that you swerve not from the smallest article of it, neither in time, matter, or other circumstance.
Good morrow, for, as I take it, it is almost day.

PROVOST I shall obey him. ['Provost reads message. Messenger exits.']

DUKE, ['aside']

This is his pardon, purchased by such sin
For which the pardoner himself is in.
Hence hath offense his quick celerity
When it is borne in high authority.
When vice makes mercy, mercy's so extended
That for the fault's love is th' offender friended.

['As Friar.'] Now, sir, what news?

PROVOST I told you: Lord Angelo, belike thinking me relish in mine office, awakens me with this unwonted putting-on, methinks strangely; for he hath not used it before.

DUKE, ['as Friar'] Pray you let's hear.

['Provost, reads'] the letter.

Whatever you may hear to the contrary, let Claudio be executed by four of the clock, and in the afternoon
Barnardine. For my better satisfaction, let me have Claudio's head sent me by five. Let this be duly performed with a thought that more depends on it than we must yet deliver. Thus fail not to do your office, as you will answer it at your peril. What say you to this, sir?

DUKE, [as Friar] What is that Barnardine who is to be executed in th' afternoon?

PROVOST A Bohemian born, but here nursed up and bred; one that is a prisoner nine years old.

DUKE, [as Friar] How came it that the absent duke had not either delivered him to his liberty, or executed him? I have heard it was ever his manner to do so.

PROVOST His friends still wrought reprieves for him; and indeed his fact, till now in the government of Lord Angelo, came not to an undoubtful proof.

DUKE, [as Friar] It is now apparent?

PROVOST Most manifest, and not denied by himself.

DUKE, [as Friar] Hath he borne himself penitently in prison? How seems he to be touched?

PROVOST A man that apprehends death no more dreadfully but as a drunken sleep; careless, reckless, and fearless of what's past, present, or to come; insensible of mortality and desperately mortal.

DUKE, [as Friar] He wants advice.

PROVOST He will hear none. He hath evermore had the liberty of the prison; give him leave to escape hence, he would not. Drunk many times a day, if not many days entirely drunk. We have very oft awaked him, as if to carry him to execution, and showed him a seeming warrant for it. It hath not moved him at all.

DUKE, [as Friar] More of him anon. There is written in your brow, provost, honesty and constancy; if I read it not truly, my ancient skill beguiles me. But in the boldness of my cunning, I will lay myself in hazard.
Claudio, whom here you have warrant to execute, is no greater forfeit to the law than Angelo, who hath sentenced him. To make you understand this in a manifested effect, I crave but four days' respite, for the which you are to do me both a present and a dangerous courtesy.

Pray, sir, in what?

Alack, how may I do it, having the hour limited, and an express command, under penalty, to deliver his head in the view of Angelo? I may make my case as Claudio's, to cross this in the smallest.

By the vow of mine order I warrant you, if my instructions may be your guide. Let this Barnardine be this morning executed and his head borne to Angelo.

Angelo hath seen them both and will discover the favor.

O, death's a great disguiser, and you may add to it. Shave the head and tie the beard, and say it was the desire of the penitent to be so bared before his death. You know the course is common. If anything fall to you upon this, more than thanks and good fortune, by the saint whom I profess, I will plead against it with my life.

Pardon me, good father, it is against my oath.

Were you sworn to the Duke or to the Deputy?

To him and to his substitutes.

You will think you have made no offense if the Duke avouch the justice of your dealing?

But what likelihood is in that?

Not a resemblance, but a certainty; yet since I see you fearful, that neither my coat, integrity, nor persuasion can with ease attempt you, I will go further than I meant, to pluck all fears out of you. Look you, sir, here is the hand and seal of the Duke. \textit{He shows the Provost a paper.} You know the character, I doubt not, and the signet is not strange to you.

\textbf{Provost} I know them both.

\textbf{Duke, \textit{as Friar}} The contents of this is the return of the Duke; you shall anon overread it at your pleasure, where you shall find within these two days he will be here. This is a thing that Angelo knows not, for he this very day receives letters of strange tenor, perchance of the Duke’s death, perchance entering into some monastery, but by chance nothing of what is writ. Look, th’ unfolding star calls up the shepherd. Put not yourself into amazement how these things should be. All difficulties are but easy when they are known. Call your executioner, and off with Barnardine’s head. I will give him a present shrift, and advise him for a better place. Yet you are amazed, but this shall absolutely resolve you.

\textit{He gives the Provost the paper.}

Come away; it is almost clear dawn.

\textit{They exit.}

\textbf{Scene 3}

\textit{Enter \textit{Pompey.}}

\textbf{Pompey} I am as well acquainted here as I was in our house of profession. One would think it were Mistress Overdone’s own house, for here be many of her old customers. First, here’s young Master Rash.
He’s in for a commodity of brown paper and old ginger, ninescore and seventeen pounds, of which he made five marks ready money. Marry, then ginger was not much in request, for the old women were all dead. Then is there here one Master Caper, at the suit of Master Three-pile the mercer, for some four suits of peach-colored satin, which now peaches him a beggar. Then have we here young Dizzy and young Master Deep-vow, and Master
Copper-spur and Master Starve-lackey the rapier-and-dagger man, and young Drop-heir that killed lusty Pudding, and Master Forth-light the tilter, and brave Master Shoe-tie the great traveler, and wild Half-can that stabbed Pots, and I think forty more, all great doers in our trade, and are now “for the Lord’s sake.”

Enter Abhorson.

Sirrah, bring Barnardine hither.
Master Barnardine, you must rise and be hanged, Master Barnardine.
What ho, Barnardine!
A pox o’ your throats! Who makes that noise there? What are you?
Your friends, sir, the hangman. You must be so good, sir, to rise and be put to death.
Away, you rogue, away! I am sleepy.
Tell him he must awake, and that quickly too.
Pray, Master Barnardine, awake till you are executed, and sleep afterwards.
Go in to him, and fetch him out.
He is coming, sir, he is coming. I hear his straw rustle.
Is the axe upon the block, sirrah?
Very ready, sir.

Enter Barnardine.
BARNARDINE    How now, Abhorson? What’s the news with you?

ABHORSON      Truly, sir, I would desire you to clap into your prayers, for, look you, the warrant’s come.

BARNARDINE    You rogue, I have been drinking all night. I am not fitted for ’t.

POMPEY        O, the better, sir, for he that drinks all night and is hanged betimes in the morning may sleep the sounder all the next day.

Enter Duke, \textit{as a Friar.}

ABHORSON, \textit{to Barnardine}    Look you, sir, here comes your ghostly father. Do we jest now, think you?

DUKE, \textit{as Friar, to Barnardine}    Sir, induced by my charity, and hearing how hastily you are to depart, I am come to advise you, comfort you, and pray with you.

BARNARDINE    Friar, not I. I have been drinking hard all night, and I will have more time to prepare me, or they shall beat out my brains with billets. I will not consent to die this day, that’s certain.

DUKE, \textit{as Friar}    O, sir, you must. And therefore I beseech you look forward on the journey you shall go.

BARNARDINE    I swear I will not die today for any man’s persuasion.

DUKE, \textit{as Friar}    But hear you—

BARNARDINE    Not a word. If you have anything to say to me, come to my ward, for thence will not I today.

\begin{center}
He exits.
\end{center}

DUKE, \textit{as Friar}    Unfit to live or die. O gravel heart! After him, fellows; bring him to the block.

\begin{center}
\textit{Abhorson and Pompey exit.}
\end{center}

Enter Provost.
Now, sir, how do you find the prisoner?

A creature unprepared, unmeet for death,
And to transport him in the mind he is
Were damnable.

Here in the prison, father,
There died this morning of a cruel fever
One Ragozine, a most notorious pirate,
A man of Claudio’s years, his beard and head
Just of his color. What if we do omit
This reprobate till he were well inclined,
And satisfy the Deputy with the visage
Of Ragozine, more like to Claudio?

O, ’tis an accident that heaven provides!
Dispatch it presently. The hour draws on Prefixed by Angelo. See this be done
And sent according to command, whiles I
Persuade this rude wretch willingly to die.

This shall be done, good father, presently.
But Barnardine must die this afternoon,
And how shall we continue Claudio,
To save me from the danger that might come
If he were known alive?

Let this be done:
Put them in secret holds, both Barnardine and
Claudio.
Ere twice the sun hath made his journal greeting
To yonder generation, you shall find
Your safety manifested.

I am your free dependent.

Quick, dispatch, and send the head to Angelo.

Provost exits.
Now will I write letters to Angelo—
The Provost he shall bear them—whose contents
Shall witness to him I am near at home
And that by great injunctions I am bound
To enter publicly. Him I’ll desire
To meet me at the consecrated fount
A league below the city; and from thence,
By cold gradation and well-balanced form,
We shall proceed with Angelo.

Enter Provost, "carrying a head."

Here is the head. I’ll carry it myself.
Convenient is it. Make a swift return,
For I would commune with you of such things
That want no ear but yours.
I’ll make all speed.

He exits.

Peace, ho, be here.

The tongue of Isabel. She’s come to know
If yet her brother’s pardon be come hither.
But I will keep her ignorant of her good
To make her heavenly comforts of despair
When it is least expected.

Enter Isabella.

Ho, by your leave.

Good morning to you, fair and gracious daughter.
The better, given me by so holy a man.
Hath yet the Deputy sent my brother’s pardon?
DUKE,  as Friar
He hath released him, Isabel, from the world.
His head is off, and sent to Angelo.  125

ISABELLA

Nay, but it is not so.
DUKE,  as Friar
It is no other.

Show your wisdom, daughter, in your close patience.

ISABELLA

O, I will to him and pluck out his eyes!

DUKE,  as Friar
You shall not be admitted to his sight.  130

ISABELLA

Unhappy Claudio, wretched Isabel,
Injurious world, most damnèd Angelo!

DUKE,  as Friar
This nor hurts him nor profits you a jot.
Forbear it, therefore; give your cause to heaven.
Mark what I say, which you shall find
By every syllable a faithful verity.
The Duke comes home tomorrow—nay, dry your eyes.
One of our convent, and his confessor,
Gives me this instance. Already he hath carried
Notice to Escalus and Angelo,
Who do prepare to meet him at the gates,
There to give up their power. If you can, pace your wisdom
In that good path that I would wish it go,
And you shall have your bosom on this wretch,
Grace of the Duke, revenges to your heart,
And general honor.

ISABELLA  I am directed by you.

DUKE,  as Friar, showing her a paper
This letter, then, to Friar Peter give.
'Tis that he sent me of the Duke’s return.

Say, by this token, I desire his company
At Mariana’s house tonight. Her cause and yours
I’ll perfect him withal, and he shall bring you
Before the Duke, and to the head of Angelo
Accuse him home and home. For my poor self,
I am combinèd by a sacred vow
And shall be absent. Wend you with this letter.

“He hands her the paper.”

Command these fretting waters from your eyes
With a light heart. Trust not my holy order
If I pervert your course.—Who’s here?

Enter Lucio.

LUCIO  Good even, friar, where’s the Provost?
DUKE,  as Friar  Not within, sir.

LUCIO  O, pretty Isabella, I am pale at mine heart to see thine eyes so red. Thou must be patient. I am fain to dine and sup with water and bran. I dare not for my head fill my belly. One fruitful meal would set me to ’t. But they say the Duke will be here tomorrow. By my troth, Isabel, I loved thy brother. If the old fantastical duke of dark corners had been at home, he had lived.

“Isabella exits.”

DUKE,  as Friar  Sir, the Duke is marvelous little beholding to your reports, but the best is, he lives not in them.

LUCIO  Friar, thou knowest not the Duke so well as I do.

He’s a better woodman than thou tak’st him for.

DUKE,  as Friar  Well, you’ll answer this one day. Fare you well.

LUCIO  Nay, tarry, I’ll go along with thee. I can tell thee pretty tales of the Duke.

DUKE,  as Friar  You have told me too many of him already, sir, if they be true; if not true, none were enough.

LUCIO  I was once before him for getting a wench with child.
DUKE, ['as Friar'] Did you such a thing?
LUCIO Yes, marry, did I, but I was fain to forswear it.
They would else have married me to the rotten medlar.
DUKE, ['as Friar'] Sir, your company is fairer than honest.
Rest you well.
LUCIO By my troth, I’ll go with thee to the lane’s end. If bawdy talk offend you, we’ll have very little of it.
Nay, friar, I am a kind of burr. I shall stick.

They exit.

Scene 4
Enter Angelo and Escalus.

ESCALUS Every letter he hath writ hath disvouched other.
ANGELO In most uneven and distracted manner. His actions show much like to madness. Pray heaven his wisdom be not tainted. And why meet him at the gates and ['deliver'] our authorities there?
ESCALUS I guess not.
ANGELO And why should we proclaim it in an hour before his entering, that if any crave redress of injustice, they should exhibit their petitions in the street?
ESCALUS He shows his reason for that: to have a dispatch of complaints, and to deliver us from devices hereafter, which shall then have no power to stand against us.
ANGELO Well, I beseech you let it be proclaimed.

Betimes i’ th’ morn, I’ll call you at your house. Give notice to such men of sort and suit as are to meet him.
ESCALUS I shall, sir. Fare you well.
ANGELO

Good night.

Escalus exits.

This deed unshapes me quite, makes me unpregnant
And dull to all proceedings. A deflowered maid,
And by an eminent body that enforced
The law against it. But that her tender shame
Will not proclaim against her maiden loss,
How might she tongue me! Yet reason dares her no,
For my authority bears of a credent bulk
That no particular scandal once can touch
But it confounds the breather. He should have lived,
Save that his riotous youth with dangerous sense
Might in the times to come have ta’en revenge
By so receiving a dishonored life
With ransom of such shame. Would yet he had lived.
Alack, when once our grace we have forgot,
Nothing goes right. We would, and we would not.

He exits.

Scene 5

Enter Duke and Friar Peter.

DUKE, giving the Friar papers.

These letters at fit time deliver me.
The Provost knows our purpose and our plot.
The matter being afoot, keep your instruction
And hold you ever to our special drift,
Though sometimes you do blench from this to that
As cause doth minister. Go call at Flavius’ house
And tell him where I stay. Give the like notice
To Valenciust, Rowland, and to Crassus,
And bid them bring the trumpets to the gate.
But send me Flavius first.

FRIAR PETER It shall be speeded well.

He exits.

Enter Varrius.
DUKE
I thank thee, Varrius. Thou hast made good haste.
Come, we will walk. There’s other of our friends
Will greet us here anon. My gentle Varrius.

They exit.

Scene 6

Enter Isabella and Mariana.

ISABELLA
To speak so indirectly I am loath.
I would say the truth, but to accuse him so
That is your part; yet I am advised to do it,
He says, to veil full purpose.

MARIANA
Be ruled by him.

ISABELLA
Besides, he tells me that, if peradventure
He speak against me on the adverse side,
I should not think it strange, for ’tis a physic
That’s bitter to sweet end.

MARIANA
I would Friar Peter—

Enter Friar Peter.

ISABELLA
O peace, the Friar is come.

FRIAR PETER
Come, I have found you out a stand most fit,
Where you may have such vantage on the Duke
He shall not pass you. Twice have the trumpets sounded.
The generous and gravest citizens
Have hent the gates, and very near upon
The Duke is entering. Therefore hence, away.

They exit.
Enter Duke, Varrius, Lords, Angelo, Escalus, Lucio, Provost, Officers, and Citizens at several doors.

DUKE, "to Angelo"
My very worthy cousin, fairly met. "To Escalus." Our old and faithful friend, we are glad to see you.

ANGELO, ESCALUS
Happy return be to your royal Grace.

DUKE
Many and hearty thankings to you both. We have made inquiry of you, and we hear such goodness of your justice that our soul cannot but yield you forth to public thanks, forerunning more requital.

ANGELO
You make my bonds still greater.

DUKE
O, your desert speaks loud, and I should wrong it to lock it in the wards of covert bosom. When it deserves with characters of brass a forted residence 'gainst the tooth of time and rasure of oblivion. Give me your hand and let the subject see, to make them know that outward courtesies would fain proclaim favors that keep within.—Come, Escalus,
You must walk by us on our other hand.
And good supporters are you.

Enter Friar Peter and Isabella.

FRIAR PETER

Now is your time. Speak loud, and kneel before him.

ISABELLA

Justice, O royal duke. Vail your regard
Upon a wronged—I would fain have said, a maid.
O worthy prince, dishonor not your eye
By throwing it on any other object
Till you have heard me in my true complaint
And given me justice, justice, justice, justice.

Here is Lord Angelo shall give you justice.
Reveal yourself to him.

ISABELLA

O worthy duke,
You bid me seek redemption of the devil.
Hear me yourself, for that which I must speak
Must either punish me, not being believed,
Or wring redress from you. Hear me, O hear me, here.

ANGELO

My lord, her wits, I fear me, are not firm.
She hath been a suitor to me for her brother
Cut off by course of justice.

ISABELLA

By course of justice!

ANGELO

And she will speak most bitterly and strange.

ISABELLA

Most strange, but yet most truly will I speak.
That Angelo’s forsworn, is it not strange?
That Angelo’s a murderer, is ’t not strange?
That Angelo is an adulterous thief,
An hypocrite, a virgin-violator,
Is it not strange, and strange?

DUKE    Nay, it is ten times strange.

ISABELLA
It is not truer he is Angelo
Than this is all as true as it is strange.
Nay, it is ten times true, for truth is truth
To th’ end of reck’ning.

DUKE    Away with her. Poor soul,
She speaks this in th’ infirmity of sense.

ISABELLA
O prince, I conjure thee, as thou believest
There is another comfort than this world,
That thou neglect me not with that opinion
That I am touched with madness. Make not impossible
That which but seems unlike. ’Tis not impossible
But one, the wicked’st caitiff on the ground,
May seem as shy, as grave, as just, as absolute
As Angelo. Even so may Angelo,
In all his dressings, caracts, titles, forms,
Be an archvillain. Believe it, royal prince,
If he be less, he’s nothing, but he’s more,
Had I more name for badness.

DUKE    By mine honesty,
If she be mad—as I believe no other—
Her madness hath the oddest frame of sense,
Such a dependency of thing on thing,
As e’er I heard in madness.

ISABELLA    O gracious duke,
Harp not on that; nor do not banish reason
For inequality, but let your reason serve
To make the truth appear where it seems hid,
And hide the false seems true.

DUKE    Many that are not mad
Have, sure, more lack of reason. What would you say?
ISABELLA

I am the sister of one Claudio,
Condemned upon the act of fornication
To lose his head, condemned by Angelo.
I, in probation of a sisterhood,
Was sent to by my brother; one Lucio
As then the messenger—

LUCIO, "to Duke"
That's I, an 't like your Grace.
I came to her from Claudio and desired her
To try her gracious fortune with Lord Angelo
For her poor brother’s pardon.

ISABELLA, "to Duke"
That's he indeed.

DUKE, "to Lucio"
You were not bid to speak.

LUCIO
No, my good lord,
Nor wished to hold my peace.

DUKE
I wish you now, then.

Pray you take note of it, and when you have
A business for yourself, pray heaven you then
Be perfect.

LUCIO
I warrant your Honor.

DUKE
The warrant’s for yourself. Take heed to ’t.

ISABELLA
This gentleman told somewhat of my tale.

LUCIO
Right.

DUKE
It may be right, but you are i’ the wrong
To speak before your time.—Proceed.

ISABELLA
I went

To this pernicious caitiff deputy—

DUKE
That’s somewhat madly spoken.

ISABELLA
Pardon it;

The phrase is to the matter.
DUKE

Mended again. The matter; proceed.

ISABELLA

In brief, to set the needless process by:
How I persuaded, how I prayed and kneeled,
How he refelled me, and how I replied—
For this was of much length—the vile conclusion
I now begin with grief and shame to utter.
He would not, but by gift of my chaste body
To his concupiscible intemperate lust,
Release my brother; and after much debatement,
My sisterly remorse confutes mine honor,
And I did yield to him. But the next morn betimes,
His purpose surfeiting, he sends a warrant
For my poor brother’s head.

DUKE

This is most likely!

ISABELLA

O, that it were as like as it is true!

DUKE

By heaven, fond wretch, thou know’st not what thou speak’st,
Or else thou art suborned against his honor
In hateful practice. First, his integrity
Stands without blemish; next, it imports no reason
That with such vehemency he should pursue
Faults proper to himself. If he had so offended,
He would have weighed thy brother by himself
And not have cut him off. Someone hath set you on.
Confess the truth, and say by whose advice
Thou cam’st here to complain.

ISABELLA

And is this all?

DUKE

Then, O you blessèd ministers above,
Keep me in patience, and with ripened time
Unfold the evil which is here wrapped up In countenance. Heaven shield your Grace from woe,
As I, thus wronged, hence unbelievèd go.

DUKE

I know you’d fain be gone.—An officer!

"An Officer comes forward."

To prison with her. Shall we thus permit

A blasting and a scandalous breath to fall

On him so near us? This needs must be a practice.—

Who knew of your intent and coming hither?

ISABELLA

One that I would were here, Friar Lodowick.

"Officer exits with Isabella."

DUKE

A ghostly father, belike. Who knows that Lodowick?

LUCIO

My lord, I know him. ’Tis a meddling friar.

I do not like the man. Had he been lay, my lord,

For certain words he spake against your Grace

In your retirement, I had swinged him soundly.

DUKE

Words against me? This’ a good friar, belike.

And to set on this wretched woman here

Against our substitute! Let this friar be found.

LUCIO

But yesternight, my lord, she and that friar,

I saw them at the prison. A saucy friar,

A very scurvy fellow.

FRIAR PETER, "to Duke" Blessed be your royal Grace.

I have stood by, my lord, and I have heard

Your royal ear abused. First hath this woman

Most wrongfully accused your substitute,

Who is as free from touch or soil with her

As she from one ungot.

DUKE We did believe no less.

FRIAR PETER

Know you that Friar Lodowick that she speaks of?

FRIAR PETER

I know him for a man divine and holy,
Not scurvy, nor a temporary meddler,
As he's reported by this gentleman;
And on my trust, a man that never yet
Did, as he vouches, misreport your Grace.

LUCIO
My lord, most villainously, believe it.

FRIAR PETER
Well, he in time may come to clear himself;
But at this instant he is sick, my lord,
Of a strange fever. Upon his mere request,
Being come to knowledge that there was complaint
Intended 'gainst Lord Angelo, came I hither
To speak as from his mouth, what he doth know
Is true and false, and what he with his oath
And all probation will make up full clear
Whosoever he's convented. First, for this woman,
To justify this worthy nobleman,
So vulgarly and personally accused,
Her shall you hear disprovèd to her eyes
Till she herself confess it.

Enter Mariana, 'veiled.'

Is this the witness, friar?

First, let her show her face, and after speak.

MARIANA
Pardon, my lord, I will not show my face
Until my husband bid me.

DUKE
What, are you married?

MARIANA
No, my lord.

DUKE
Are you a maid?
MARIANA  No, my lord.

DUKE    A widow, then?

MARIANA  Neither, my lord.

DUKE    Why you are nothing, then, neither maid, widow, nor wife?

LUCIO    My lord, she may be a punk, for many of them are neither maid, widow, nor wife.

DUKE    Silence that fellow. I would he had some cause to prattle for himself.

LUCIO    Well, my lord.

MARIANA

   My lord, I do confess I ne’er was married,
   And I confess besides I am no maid.
   I have known my husband, yet my husband
   Knows not that ever he knew me.

LUCIO    He was drunk, then, my lord; it can be no better.

DUKE    For the benefit of silence, would thou wert so too.

LUCIO    Well, my lord.

DUKE

   This is no witness for Lord Angelo.

MARIANA  Now I come to ’t, my lord.

She that accuses him of fornication
   In selfsame manner doth accuse my husband,
   And charges him, my lord, with such a time
   When, I’ll depose, I had him in mine arms
   With all th’ effect of love.

ANGELO  Charges she more than me?

MARIANA  Not that I know.

DUKE    No? You say your husband.

MARIANA

   Why, just, my lord, and that is Angelo,
   Who thinks he knows that he ne’er knew my body,
   But knows, he thinks, that he knows Isabel’s.

ANGELO

   This is a strange abuse. Let’s see thy face.
MARIANA

My husband bids me. Now I will unmask.

[She removes her veil.]

This is that face, thou cruel Angelo,
Which once thou swor’st was worth the looking on.
This is the hand which, with a vowed contract,
Was fast belocked in thine. This is the body
That took away the match from Isabel
And did supply thee at thy garden house
In her imagined person.

DUKE, [to Angelo] Know you this woman? 235

LUCIO Carnally, she says.

DUKE Sirrah, no more.

My lord, I must confess I know this woman,
And five years since there was some speech of marriage
Betwixt myself and her, which was broke off,
Partly for that her promisèd proportions
Came short of composition, but in chief
For that her reputation was disvalued
In levity. Since which time of five years
I never spake with her, saw her, nor heard from her,
Upon my faith and honor.

MARIANA, [kneeling, to Duke] Noble prince,

As there comes light from heaven and words from breath,
As there is sense in truth and truth in virtue,
I am affianced this man’s wife as strongly
As words could make up vows. And, my good lord,
But Tuesday night last gone in ’s garden house
He knew me as a wife. As this is true,
Let me in safety raise me from my knees,
Or else forever be confixèd here
A marble monument.
DUKE

Now, good my lord, give me the scope of justice.
My patience here is touched. I do perceive
These poor informal women are no more
But instruments of some more mightier member
That sets them on. Let me have way, my lord,
To find this practice out.

AY, with my heart,
And punish them to your height of pleasure.—
Thou foolish friar, and thou pernicious woman, Compact with her that’s gone, think’st thou thy oaths,
Though they would swear down each particular saint,
Were testimonies against his worth and credit
That’s sealed in approbation?—You, Lord Escalus,
Sit with my cousin; lend him your kind pains
To find out this abuse, whence ’tis derived.

[The Duke rises. Escalus is seated.]

There is another friar that set them on.
Let him be sent for.

FRIAR PETER

Would he were here, my lord, for he indeed
Hath set the women on to this complaint;
Your provost knows the place where he abides,
And he may fetch him.

Go, do it instantly.

[Provost exits.]

And you, my noble and well-warranted cousin,
Whom it concerns to hear this matter forth,
Do with your injuries as seems you best
In any chastisement. I for a while
Will leave you; but stir not you till you have
Well determined upon these slanderers.

My lord, we’ll do it throughly.

[Duke exits.]
Signior Lucio, did not you say you knew that Friar Lodowick to be a dishonest person?

Lucio. Cucullus non facit monachum, honest in nothing but in his clothes, and one that hath spoke most villainous speeches of the Duke.

Escalus. We shall entreat you to abide here till he come, and enforce them against him. We shall find this friar a notable fellow.

Lucio. As any in Vienna, on my word.

Escalus. Call that same Isabel here once again. I would speak with her. [An Attendant exits.]

“To Angelo.” Pray you, my lord, give me leave to question. You shall see how I’ll handle her.

Lucio. Not better than he, by her own report.

Escalus. Say you?

Lucio. Marry, sir, I think, if you handled her privately, she would sooner confess; perchance publicly she’ll be ashamed.

Escalus. I will go darkly to work with her.

Lucio. That’s the way, for women are light at midnight.

*Enter Duke [as a Friar,] Provost, [and] Isabella, [with Officers.]*

Escalus, [to Isabella] Come on, mistress. Here’s a gentlewoman denies all that you have said.

Lucio. My lord, here comes the rascal I spoke of, here with the Provost.

Escalus. In very good time. Speak not you to him till we call upon you.

Lucio. Mum.

Escalus, [to disguised Duke] Come, sir, did you set these women on to slander Lord Angelo? They have confessed you did.

Duke, [as Friar] ’Tis false.

Escalus. How? Know you where you are?
DUKE, [as Friar]\(^1\)

Respect to your great place, and let the devil 330
Be sometime honored for his burning throne.
Where is the Duke? ’Tis he should hear me speak.

ESCALUS

The Duke’s in us, and we will hear you speak.
Look you speak justly.

DUKE, [as Friar]\(^1\)

Boldly, at least.—But, O, poor souls, 335
Come you to seek the lamb here of the fox?
Good night to your redress. Is the Duke gone?
Then is your cause gone too. The Duke’s unjust
Thus to retort your manifest appeal,
And put your trial in the villain’s mouth 340
Which here you come to accuse.

LUCIO

This is the rascal; this is he I spoke of.

ESCALUS, [to disguised Duke]\(^1\)

Why, thou un Reverend and unhallowed friar, 345
Is ’t not enough thou hast suborned these women
To accuse this worthy man, but, in foul mouth
And in the witness of his proper ear,
To call him villain? And then to glance from him
To th’ Duke himself, to tax him with injustice?—
Take him hence. To th’ rack with him. We’ll touse 350

[him]\(^1\)

Joint by joint, but we will know his purpose.
What? “Unjust”?\(^1\)

DUKE, [as Friar]\(^1\)

Be not so hot. The Duke 355
Dare no more stretch this finger of mine than he Dare rack his own. His subject am I not,
Nor here provincial. My business in this state
Made me a looker-on here in Vienna,
Where I have seen corruption boil and bubble
Till it o’errun the stew. Laws for all faults,
But faults so countenanced that the strong statutes
Stand like the forfeits in a barber's shop,
As much in mock as mark.

ESCALUS Slander to th' state!
Away with him to prison.

ANGELO, to Lucio
What can you vouch against him, Signior Lucio? Is this the man that you did tell us of?

LUCIO 'Tis he, my lord.—Come hither, Goodman Baldpate. Do you know me?

DUKE, as Friar I remember you, sir, by the sound of your voice. I met you at the prison in the absence of the Duke.

LUCIO O, did you so? And do you remember what you said of the Duke?

DUKE, as Friar Most notedly, sir.

LUCIO Do you so, sir? And was the Duke a fleshmonger, a fool, and a coward, as you then reported him to be?

DUKE, as Friar You must, sir, change persons with me ere you make that my report. You indeed spoke so of him, and much more, much worse.

LUCIO O, thou damnable fellow! Did not I pluck thee by the nose for thy speeches?

DUKE, as Friar I protest I love the Duke as I love myself.

ANGELO Hark how the villain would close now, after his treasonable abuses!

ESCALUS Such a fellow is not to be talked withal. Away with him to prison. Where is the Provost? Provost comes forward. Away with him to prison. Lay bolts enough upon him. Let him speak no more. Away with those giglets too, and with the other confederate companion.

Provost seizes the disguised Duke.

DUKE, as Friar Stay, sir, stay awhile.

ANGELO What, resists he?—Help him, Lucio.

LUCIO, to the disguised Duke Come, sir, come, sir,
He pulls off the friar’s hood, and reveals the Duke.

Angelo and Escalus stand.

DUKE

Thou art the first knave that e’er mad’st a duke.—

First, provost, let me bail these gentle three.

To Lucio.] Sneak not away, sir, for the friar and you Must have a word anon.—Lay hold on him.

LUCIO

This may prove worse than hanging.

DUKE, [to Escalus]

What you have spoke I pardon. Sit you down.

We’ll borrow place of him. [To Angelo.] Sir, by your leave.

Hast thou or word, or wit, or impudence

That yet can do thee office? If thou hast,

Rely upon it till my tale be heard,

And hold no longer out.

ANGELO

O my dread lord,

I should be guiltier than my guiltiness

To think I can be undiscernible,

When I perceive your Grace, like power divine,

Hath looked upon my passes. Then, good prince,

No longer session hold upon my shame,

But let my trial be mine own confession.

Immediate sentence then and sequent death

Is all the grace I beg.

DUKE

Come hither, Mariana.

Mariana stands and comes forward.

[to Angelo.] Say, wast thou e’er contracted to this woman?

ANGELO

I was, my lord.

DUKE

Go take her hence and marry her instantly.
"To Friar Peter.\ Do you the office, friar, which consummate, Return him here again.—Go with him, provost.
"Angelo, Mariana, Friar Peter, and Provost\ exit.

ESCALUS

My lord, I am more amazed at his dishonor
Than at the strangeness of it.

DUKE

Come hither, Isabel.
Your friar is now your prince. As I was then Advertising and holy to your business,
Not changing heart with habit, I am still Attorneyed at your service.

ISABELLA

O, give me pardon
That I, your vassal, have employed and pained
Your unknown sovereignty.

DUKE

You are pardoned,
Isabel.
And now, dear maid, be you as free to us.
Your brother’s death, I know, sits at your heart,
And you may marvel why I obscured myself,
Laboring to save his life, and would not rather
Make rash remonstrance of my hidden power
Than let him so be lost. O most kind maid,
It was the swift celerity of his death,
Which I did think with slower foot came on,
That brained my purpose. But peace be with him.
That life is better life past fearing death
Than that which lives to fear. Make it your comfort,
So happy is your brother.

ISABELLA

I do, my lord.

Enter Angelo, Mariana, Friar Peter, and Provost.

DUKE

For this new-married man approaching here,
Whose salt imagination yet hath wronged
Your well-defended honor, you must pardon
For Mariana’s sake. But as he adjudged your brother—
Being criminal in double violation
Of sacred chastity and of promise-breach
Thereon dependent for your brother’s life—
The very mercy of the law cries out
Most audible, even from his proper tongue,
   “An Angelo for Claudio, death for death.”
Haste still pays haste, and leisure answers leisure;
Like doth quit like, and measure still for measure.—
Then, Angelo, thy fault’s thus manifested,
   Which, though thou wouldst deny, denies thee
   vantage.
We do condemn thee to the very block
   Where Claudio stooped to death, and with like haste.—
Away with him.

MARIANA  O my most gracious lord,
I hope you will not mock me with a husband.

DUKE
   It is your husband mocked you with a husband.
Consenting to the safeguard of your honor,
   I thought your marriage fit. Else imputation,
For that he knew you, might reproach your life
And choke your good to come. For his possessions,
   Although by {confiscation} they are ours,
   We do instate and widow you with all
   To buy you a better husband.

MARIANA  O my dear lord,
I crave no other nor no better man.

DUKE
   Never crave him. We are definitive.

MARIANA, {kneeling}
   Gentle my liege—
   You do but lose your labor.—
Away with him to death.  [To Lucio.] Now, sir, to you.

MARIANA

O, my good lord.—Sweet Isabel, take my part.
Lend me your knees, and all my life to come
I’ll lend you all my life to do you service.

DUKE

Against all sense you do importune her.
Should she kneel down in mercy of this fact,
Her brother’s ghost his pavèd bed would break
And take her hence in horror.

MARIANA

Isabel,
Sweet Isabel, do yet but kneel by me,
Hold up your hands, say nothing. I’ll speak all.
They say best men are molded out of faults,
And, for the most, become much more the better
For being a little bad. So may my husband.
O Isabel, will you not lend a knee?

DUKE

He dies for Claudio’s death.

ISABELLA,  [kneeling]  Most bounteous sir,
Look, if it please you, on this man condemned
As if my brother lived. I partly think
A due sincerity governed his deeds
Till he did look on me. Since it is so,
Let him not die. My brother had but justice,
In that he did the thing for which he died.
For Angelo,
His act did not o’ertake his bad intent,
And must be buried but as an intent
That perished by the way. Thoughts are no subjects,
Intents but merely thoughts.

MARIANA

Merely, my lord.

DUKE

Your suit’s unprofitable. Stand up, I say.

[They stand.]

I have bethought me of another fault.—
Provost, how came it Claudio was beheaded
At an unusual hour?

PROVOST
It was commanded so.

DUKE

Had you a special warrant for the deed?

PROVOST
No, my good lord, it was by private message.

DUKE
For which I do discharge you of your office.
Give up your keys.

PROVOST
Pardon me, noble lord.

DUKE
I thought it was a fault, but knew it not,
Yet did repent me after more advice,
For testimony whereof, one in the prison
That should by private order else have died,
I have reserved alive.

What's he?

His name is Barnardine.

I would thou hadst done so by Claudio.

Go fetch him hither. Let me look upon him.

'Provost exits.'

ESCALUS, to Angelo

I am sorry one so learnèd and so wise
As you, Lord Angelo, have still appeared,
Should slip so grossly, both in the heat of blood
And lack of tempered judgment afterward.

ANGelo

I am sorry that such sorrow I procure;
And so deep sticks it in my penitent heart

That I crave death more willingly than mercy.
'Tis my deserving, and I do entreat it.

Enter Barnardine and Provost, Claudio, muffled, and Juliet.

DUKE, to Provost

Which is that Barnardine?
PROVOST

This, my lord.

DUKE

There was a friar told me of this man.—
Sirrah, thou art said to have a stubborn soul
That apprehends no further than this world,
And squar’st thy life according. Thou ’rt condemned.
But, for those earthly faults, I quit them all,
And pray thee take this mercy to provide
For better times to come.—Friar, advise him.
I leave him to your hand.—What muffled fellow’s that?

PROVOST

This is another prisoner that I saved
Who should have died when Claudio lost his head,
As like almost to Claudio as himself.

“He unmuffles Claudio.”

DUKE, [to Isabella]

If he be like your brother, for his sake
Is he pardoned; and for your lovely sake,
Give me your hand and say you will be mine,
He is my brother too. But fitter time for that.
By this Lord Angelo perceives he’s safe;
Methinks I see a quick’ning in his eye.—
Well, Angelo, your evil quits you well.
Look that you love your wife, her worth worth yours.
I find an apt remission in myself.
And yet here’s one in place I cannot pardon.

[To Lucio.] You, sirrah, that knew me for a fool, a coward,
One all of luxury, an ass, a madman.

Wherein have I so deserved of you
That you extol me thus?

LUCIO    Faith, my lord, I spoke it but according to the trick. If you will hang me for it, you may, but I had rather it would please you I might be whipped.
DUKE    Whipped first, sir, and hanged after.—
        Proclaim it, provost, round about the city,
        If any woman wronged by this lewd fellow—
        As I have heard him swear himself there’s one Whom he begot with child—let her appear,
        And he shall marry her. The nuptial finished,
        Let him be whipped and hanged.

LUCIO  I beseech your Highness do not marry me to a whore. Your Highness said even now I made you a duke. Good my lord, do not recompense me in making me a cuckold.

DUKE    Upon mine honor, thou shalt marry her.
        Thy slanders I forgive and therewithal
        Remit thy other forfeits.—Take him to prison,
        And see our pleasure herein executed.

LUCIO  Marrying a punk, my lord, is pressing to death, whipping, and hanging.

DUKE    Slandering a prince deserves it.
        Officers take Lucio away.¹

        She, Claudio, that you wronged, look you restore.—
        Joy to you, Mariana.—Love her, Angelo.
        I have confessed her, and I know her virtue.—
        Thanks, good friend Escalus, for thy much goodness.
        There’s more behind that is more gratulate.—
        Thanks, provost, for thy care and secrecy.
        We shall employ thee in a worthier place.—
        Forgive him, Angelo, that brought you home
        The head of Ragozine for Claudio’s.
        Th’ offense pardons itself.—Dear Isabel,
        I have a motion much imports your good,
        Whereo if you’ll a willing ear incline,
        What’s mine is yours, and what is yours is mine.—
        So, bring us to our palace, where we’ll show
        What’s yet behind [that’s] meet you all should know.

        They exit.¹
